“Where are the parents? Why is it that there is a lack of parent participation at these IPP meetings? If you can answer that, you can answer a lot of questions.”

A statement made by Robert “Booby” Sherman, Ignacio School District Board member at the annual Indian Policies and Procedures (IPP) meeting hosted by the Ignacio School District, Tuesday evening at the Ignacio School District Administration Building. Southern Ute Tribal Chairman Clement J. Frost stated the Tribal Council needed to become more involved by bringing the lack of parent participation before the Color-

The Ignacio School Board Senate and the Sunshine Cloud Smith Youth Advisory Council held a Meet the Candidates Night for the eight candidates vying for a three seats on the Ignacio School District School Board. The forum was held in the Ignacio High School Auditorium on Wednesday, Oct. 21 roughly two weeks out from the Tuesday, Nov. 3 election.

“We want to build a better relationship with the adults and students,” Issac Suina, SCSYAC Chairman said.

The three-hour forum managed to gather a modest crowd, with most of the audience seeming to be affiliated with the event. The youth asked the first round of questions followed by the public.

All eight candidates showed up for the event – Jay Dee Brunson, Yvonne Conley-Chapman, Cynthia Dale, Germaine Ewing, Doug Little, Kelly McCaw, Michael Montoya, and Incumbent Agnes Sanchez.

Candidates fielded questions about the school district’s challenges, the achievement gap, current policies and procedures and budgetary issues.

TRIBAL RANGERS

Scott completes training, joins Tribal Rangers

Damon Toledo
THE SOUTHERN UTE DRUM

The Southern Ute Tribal Rangers Division is adding a new member to the department - tribal member, Jason Scott. Scott recently completed sixteen weeks of rigorous training at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Artesia, NM, with training ranging from firearms to driving courses. Scott graduated from the training center on Monday, Oct. 26, and was joined by his family and seventeen of the cadets in class 507/155 to celebrate the milestone.

“It’s been a long sixteen weeks, but there’s so much I learned,” Scott said. “I look forward to working with everyone. I enjoy the [reservation] and the people - it brings me pride. Joining the rangers is a good opportunity that I fell into, and I thank my family, department, and everyone else who supported me along the way.”

Class Representative, Jessica E. Ramos, gave her cadets personal gratitude for the teamwork they underwent during their intensive training.

“It has been a long journey, but I am happy to share this special moment with my platoon,” Ramos said. “This Academy has been a tough one for all of us, but now looking back, we are the people who have been chosen to protect our community. We will continue to do what we’ve been training to do, and that is to show professionalism in our duty.”

son’s mother, showed admiration in her son’s successes.

“I’m very proud of him. To see him be interested in becoming a tribal ranger, he makes my heart swell. He’s a great son, and he gives me and our family pride.”

Thomas Woolworth, retired Special Agent in the BIA Office of Justice Services, addressed the graduating class about their future and holding strong to the ethics they all learned.

“I want to issue several challenges to this class, and one of them is to maintain your ethics,” he stated. “The second challenge is to remember your training. You will remain in training for the rest of our years, and it will be a constant to your job. Lastly, never forget about your loved ones at home as well as the departments who put all faith and trust in you ... focus on your future and believe in yourself. Always achieve great things as you move forward.”

“I am honored to serve my people and do the very best job for them,” Jason Scott concluded.

As if anyone really needed a reminder:

You watch Ignacio Volleyball, you get your money’s worth.

For an incredible seventh time in 18 matches so far – the Oct. 27 regular-season finale versus 3A Pagosa Springs (14-7 overall) still remained, but was completed after the Drum’s deadline – in 2015 the Volleys were either forced into or fought for a tiebreaking fifth game against an opponent.

The latter was the case inside IHS Gymnasium on Saturday, Oct. 24, and shocked relatively few with ninth-ranked [CHSAANow.com Class 1A poll, 10/19] Norwood testing 2A’s No. 8, with Ignacio not 48 hours removed from a 25-21, 25-21, 25-23 sweep of surprisingly difficult Dolores, minus departed star Courtney Blackmer.

Tribal member Melanie Seibel participated in Fort Lewis College's Spotlight-to-Stardom talent show. The fundraiser was held October 16 at the FLC Community Concert Hall in Durango. This is the first Four Corners Talent Search and was a benefit for the non-for-profit concert hall at FLC. There were a total of eighteen participants and they all competed for recognition from various entertainment industry judges. Melanie's family was in attendance to cheer her on as she sang "Love Will Keep Us Together" by The Captain and Tennille. Melanie said she was extremely nervous about performing in front of so many people but she had a blast doing it anyway. Way to go Mel!

school districts biggest issue varied between candidates.

The biggest challenges facing the district is parent involvement, incumbent Sanchez said.

Montoya went a different route, as he said he thinks the biggest issue facing the school district is teacher salaries.

"Teacher pay is lower than the state and national average," he said.

McCaw agreed with Sanchez, that parent involvement is a major concern.

"I'm advocating for parents and students to get involved in school," she said. "Education is a privilege."

Little said he believes truancy is a major issue within the district.

The next question focused on the achievement gap in the school district and how the candidate would fix it.

"The achievement gap applies to all communities, families and school districts," she said. "Achievements start at home."

"Everybody has the same opportunity to learn the same," McCaw said.

Another question asked was how to lower the thousands of dollars of debt coming from unpaid meal charges.

Dale suggested sending the bills to the collection agency to ensure repayment. Additionally, Dale said it is not the staffs' responsibility to collect unpaid bills.

Conley-Chapman said it's a family concern and should be something the parent and student handle.

Ewing said she thinks educating parents on services provided would help the cause.

"I'm no advocate of not feeding a student ... need to educate parents on what aid is available," she said.

Students also asked why the candidates wanted to be on the board and what qualifies the candidate. "I have children with in the district ... I feel I can help with the better education of our children, Brunson said.

Conley-Chapman said she wants to be involved with her children's education and said she would bring her expertise of customer service to the board.

Ewing, employee for the Southern Ute Indian Tribe for the last 18 years is seeking a seat on the board.

"I have a strong belief in education and community unity," she said.

Dale has recently retired from teaching and has worked for the district the past 15 years, she said.

Little also has a history of teaching and coaching in the community, he said.

"I want to help the [school board] take further steps and concentrate on the kids, he said.

McCaw said she has been on the District Accountability Committee and is a long-time volunteer of the Ignacio Schools and hopes to keep the district moving forward.

"The public school system is the most important entity in the community," she said.

Montoya is an accountant and feels his accounting expertise would be beneficial to the board during the budgeting process.

"I'm a concerned parent and seek improvement in the school district," he said. "I want people to get proud of the community."

Incumbent, Sanchez wants to continue to help the community through working on the school board, she said.

"I like to give back to the community and volunteer," she said. "I care about the students, and I work very well with other committees."

do Commission of Indian Affairs.

The lack of parent involvement wanes as the student gets older, moving up in grade levels. The expectation that the student gets older and gains more responsibility becomes more obvious.

Parent involvement is obviously more prevalent in the younger grade levels.

However the numbers are strikingly clear, the majority of students are Native American in the Ignacio School District.

Numbers from the 2014-2015 IPP Report show Native American students enrolled in the Ignacio School District: 66 students in elementary; 51 in the middle school; and 60 in the high school.

Of these numbers the majority of the students, attendance seems to be the main reason these students are on the "down list". The IPP Report shows a slight increase in total percentage of attendance in the elementary school of 91.70% in 2011 to 91.88% in 2014, and a peak of 94.13% in 2013.

The numbers for attendance in the middle and high Schools are less favorable, according to the IPP Report. In the Middle School, Native American students have the lowest percentile of attendance of 86.92%, and 81.23% in the high school of all students.

The "down list" reflects these numbers as the majority of these students are on the list for attendance. Which brings up back to ... who's responsible for the students being on the list?

Ultimately it's the parents/guardians of the students to get the kids to school, if they are not riding the bus, however who's responsible for keeping the students in school?

Discipline and safety were also brought up during the IPP meeting.

Southern Ute tribal member and parent of students in the Ignacio School District, Lucinda Cloud said, "although the new high school is nice, and the entrance has a lot of windows, it seems harder to get into the High School now, it doesn't feel welcoming."

Ignacio Superintendent of Schools, Rocco Fuschetto said, "our point of concern that was brought to our attention last year was security."

Fuschetto continued by saying, "That's why the high school is secured in this way, it's a shame we have to be so secure, I wish we didn't have to, but we need to keep the kids safe."

As far as discipline goes, Fuschetto stated there is a need of parent support when it comes to discipline.

"We have the kids in our building up to seven hours a day. We cannot handle every situation. The kids see what happens at home," Fuschetto said. "Parents need to take responsibility of their children when it comes to disciplining the students. We are doing our best, we need the support of the parents when disciplining the student, not running to the papers or pressing charges. Parents need to support our teachers."

Mr. Alphonso "Ponch" Garcia is now the Dean of Students, he spends his day in all the schools and classrooms. Supporting both students and teachers. The students also now have a new Student Support Center. These are a few ways the schools are adding more support for the student.

Southern Ute Education Director La Titia Taylor spoke of some things the Tribal Education Department is doing to aid in supporting the students.

"We have continued to offer tutoring to students who need it. We also advocate for the families when working with the Southern Ute Social Services and with "Wellness Court" to improve attendance," Taylor said. "The collaboration between the school district and the tribe continues through conversations with students through counseling, aiding in attendance and with grades."

Attendance is seen as an issue of the Native American students, and only through parent input and involvement can this be alleviated. "How can I [as a parent] help my student?"

Ninety-five percent of the attendance issues were lowered by family concentration, by connection with those families.

"We need to take a more pro-active stance by engaging the students at a lower grade level, at the elementary level," Taylor said.

However, parent involvement is crucial when asking for Federal monies for the Native American students with the school district.

Total numbers of returned Impact Aide Surveys sent are very low. Of the 122 sent out in the Primary (K-5) grade levels only six were returned. And of the 161 surveys sent out in the Secondary (6-12) grade levels only 5 were sent back.

These numbers reflect the lack of interest in the education of Native American students within the Ignacio School District when speaking of monies to be used within the school.

Former Johnson O'Malley board member, Tamera Reynolds, stated she does not have any children enrolled in the Ignacio School District, but is very interested in the district as her children may transition into the public school system in the future, and asked if the school's rating has improved.

The Colorado Department of Education (CDE) gave the Ignacio School District a very low rating last year; the rating is based on test scores.

Ignacio School District Administrator, Dr. Kathy Pokorney said the test scores from last year have not even been received yet.

The ratings for this year have been put on hold this year. Roderick added, "The state has put a hold on the ratings this year, not just in Ignacio but a state-wide hold," he said.

Another point of concern was the transition of the Southern Ute Indian Montessori Academy (SUIMA) students into the Ignacio public schools.

Tests scores are lower for these students as pointed out by Roderick.

"The tests are written sequential, the State regulates Standardized Testing, they are not aware of the cultural differences in learning," he said.

Sunshine Cloud Smith Youth Advisory Council Chairman Issac Suina asked if the school district can bring Ute Language into the middle school so that students transitioning into public schools don't have to skip a year of speaking Ute.

Ute Language is taught and spoken every day in SUIMA. Dr. Stacey Oberly teaches the Ute Language class in the Ignacio schools.

Suina also asked about the addition of orchestra to the schools music curriculum.

"With the budget so tight, we do see the importance of music in the schools, we have added another music teacher, with the two teachers now doing the work of three teachers in the music department," Roderick pointed out.

Chairman Frost closed the evening by stating he does want to see the Ute Language continuing into the middle school, and that the education committee meet with the Tribal Council to become familiar with them and encourage the continued support of the collaboration between the school district and Tribal Council.

He offered this to the parents.

"How often do we tell our children we are proud of what they are doing, and that they are doing the best they can?"

"We have a lack of parent involvement to discuss IPP issues. We as leaders need to encourage our new teachers. Education is never ending, although we have different ways of teaching, we must continue to change. To encourage our students to do the best that they can," Frost said.

Attention agricultural land managers

The Water Quality Program for the Southern Ute Indian Tribe is accepting applications for the 2016 Cost-share program. The Cost-share program is aimed at land managers living within the exterior boundaries of the Southern Ute Indian Reservation on the Animas, Florida and Pine watersheds who are interested in implementing Best Management Practices (BMPs) for more efficient irrigation and/or riparian protection/improvements. The majority of costs are covered by the Tribe through conservation agreements in which BMPs, such as surface gated pipe, underground pipe and inlet structures, or riparian fencing/off-stream watering sources are implemented. Such BMPs limit return flows from irrigated land and restore/protect critical riparian zones, thus decreasing erosion and other pollutants into our local watersheds. Call project coordinator Pete Nylander at 970-563-0135, ext. 2214 for more information.

Integrity & Accountability

All aboard!

The SunUte Recreation Staff took tribal member families on the Peanuts "The Great Pumpkin Patch Express" Saturday, Oct. 24. Families board the Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge train and take a 30-minute train ride to north Durango. Once at the patch there were a number of family friendly activities, including the chance to meet Charlie Brown and Snoopy.

GENERAL ELECTION

Candidate statements

LORELEI CLOUD

Maykh,
My name is Lorelei Cloud, and I am running for Southern Ute Tribal Council in the general election. I am the daughter of Gayla Smith and Celestino Martinez- igyapu. My grandparents were Sunshine Cloud Smith- igyapu, Diamond Smith- igyapu, Virginia Cox- igyapu and Patricio Martinez- igyapu.

I currently work at Red Willow Production Company as the Land Assistant Supervisor; I started in an entry level position and worked my way up to a Supervisor in the Land Department. I also assist with integrating the Ute culture into Red Willow, so that all employees know who we are as Ute people and who they work for. Previously, I worked at Sky Ute Sand and Gravel as an office clerk, the Southern Ute Indian Housing Authority as the Junior Accountant/ Human Resources; Bank of Colorado (formerly Burns National Bank) as the Customer Service Supervisor/ Proof Supervisor; and First National Bank of Farmington in the Cash Management department. I also am on the Southern Ute Growth Fund Art Committee, the Southern Ute Growth Fund Traveling Team, and I am a currently serving my second term as a member of the Tribal Member Employment Advisory Committee (TMEAC). I have also committed myself to learning our Ute Language, and have been attending the Ute Language class for the past 4 years.

I was raised by my Grandmother Sunshine Cloud Smith- igyapu and my grandmother's eldest sister, Minnie Nash Cloud- igyapu. I was taught our traditional way of life, which I still live by and hold dear to my heart. I participate in our Sweat, Bear Dance and Sundance ceremonies. I am also an active participant in our Annual Southern Ute Fair.

I am passionate about our Ute people and our culture. Our ancestors and past leaders have worked very hard and sacrificed for the things what we have today. The Southern Ute Tribe is abundant; there is plenty of money for all us -but we can't let money be the focus of our lives. We need to put our people, culture, and traditions first. Our world is changing daily, and we need to make sure that the Ute people survive and thrive. We have a lot of internal fighting among our tribal members. Sometimes it seems as though we would rather tear each other down than build each other up. Our anger and hatred for each other has to come to an end. We need to become a united people once again. We need to heal and rise above all the negativity, and leave it in the past. Our children deserve to move forward in their lives without this continued anger and pain.

All of our decisions should be made with our future in mind. Our children and their children are our future. They are going to keep the Tribe alive. We need to empower them to be the best they can be. Let's instill in our youth the language, the culture, the traditions and the power to be whatever they choose, and we should support them in the process. Our youth need to be confident and stand strong. Recently, two women completed Army Ranger training. In addition, several young people built their own companies and are successful. Our Ute people are capable to reach these same goals and more. We need to help our people obtain proper work ethics, so that they can get any job anywhere. Investing in our youth is the best thing that we can do for ourselves.

We also need our employees to respect the Ute people that they work for. There are policies and procedures in place in all entities of the Southern Ute Tribe; but things are still taking place where people think that these rules don't apply to them. If we are to obtain the next level of success, we need to stand together and hold all employees of the tribe accountable. No one is exempt. We all work for the Southern Ute people and the people are unsatisfied with the quality of services that we receive. This must be improved, including the areas of employment and getting a land assignment. Our housing situation on the reservation hasn't improved in the past 10+ years. Our people need homes. They need jobs. We need to employ our own people. We need to create more apprenticeship and trainee programs to help employ our people. We must help each other succeed and live up to our potential. United we stand – Divided we fall.

I am respectfully asking to be of service to the Southern Ute People. I want to see unification among our people. I want the Ute people to prosper and to be empowered. Please come out November 6th and vote. Vote for integrity and accountability.

RENEE J. CLOUD

“Vote for a Change”
“A voice for Tribal Members”

Hello, Southern Ute Tribe-Membership,

First of all, my name is Renee J. Cloud who has been nominated by independent Southern Ute Elders as their candidate for this seat. Due to my knowledge about the Tribe, the departments and how our Government operates.

I am traditional I speak and understand Ute fluently; I have worked in several Tribal departments; served on several committees i.e. Ute language committee, Enrollment Committee, and Tribal Health Advisory. I was on Tribal Council, and with other councilors laid the foundation/planning of the Casino; created the Growth Fund, and implemented the Financial Plan. Besides work experience I also have several business degrees in management and leadership.

PLATFORM

My platform is based on the overall Tribal Government operations, and how elected official's administer departments and programs.

TRIBAL ISSUES

Currently and on-going there are issues pertaining to Health, Personnel, Hiring, Tribal Court, Ignacio School System, and Federal Funding for SUCAP, etc. The most important issue for all of us to understand is the Financial Plan which is subject to change for FY 2017. Within this plan our Per Capita may be cut, and we will receive less funds. Tribal Council has approved this new plan.

Other issues is; Tribal Council approved a “Flex work schedule” for Tribal Staff, a four day work week starting on November 1, 2015.

In the Tribal Health program Tribal Council put a cap on how much funds an individual can use for vision and dental programs without research.

Tribal Council has continuously made on-going changes to the Constitution without our vote or obtaining Secretary of Interior Approval.

IF ELECTED

My plan is to express the need to acknowledge Resolution 99-07 regarding the long-term Financial Plan. Within this plan it states the per capita distribution is to be in perpetuity for current and future Tribal member. This needs to be acknowledged by Tribal Council, and that it be considered in every Financial Plan discussion and implementation.

- Recommend changes in the Health Care Program & restore the Health Advisory Committee.
- Restore the Elders Committee to assist elders with their needs.
- Promote Work Ethics and Ethic Conduct, and Drug Policies
- Recommend Financial Accountability for all Tribal Departments, Audits as needed.

CONCLUSION

Tribal members need individuals on Tribal Council who will help resolve issues of concern; Adhere to their administrative duties as elected officials in a professional manner. I am confident I can be this Councilor. So with that I am asking for your vote of confidence on November 6, 2015.

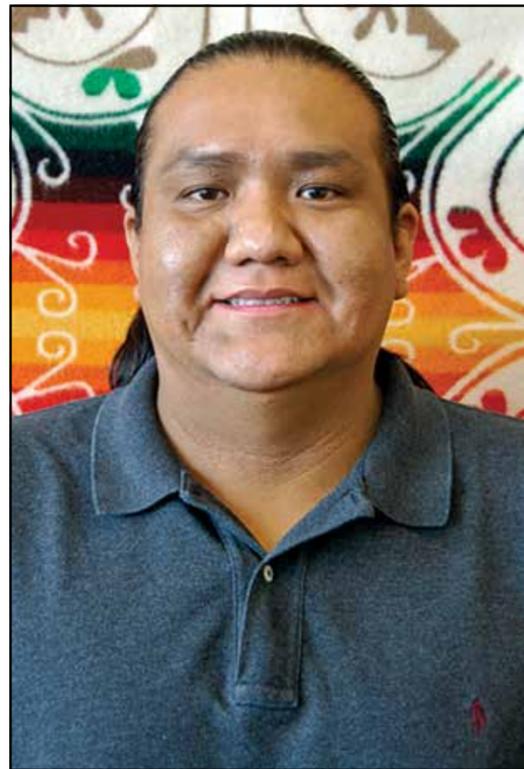

Thank you and God Bless You.

Elect Renee J. Cloud for Tribal Council

Tribal Council candidate withdrawal

Dear Tribal Membership,
At this time, due to health issues, I would like to inform you that I am withdrawing my candidacy for a seat on the Southern Ute Tribal Council this election year.
I thank you for understanding and supporting my decision to withdraw.

*Sincerely,
Marjorie Borst*

KEVIN R. FROST

Greetings Tribal Members

I'm Kevin Frost and I am a candidate for the upcoming November 2015 Tribal Council election. My parents are Ray Frost and Jean Frost. My grandparents were Jack and Annette Frost. The time is now to fix issues that affect our daily lives.

There are three things to consider when voting:

HOW HAS THE TRIBAL GOVERNMENT FAILED US?

We must work together to meet our basic needs of food, shelter, personal security, financial security as well as health and well being. Employing our members first and allowing our members to develop skills on the job will directly help our members provide for themselves and their families. If we want a home as well as a land assignment there should be no obstacles in helping us. Foster childcare needs improvement so we need to work together to find a solution that benefits our children first. Issues with Law Enforcement and Tribal Courts need attention. If there are unrecognized complaints or Civil Rights violations we need to resolve them and if necessary get appropriate Agencies involved. It's time to stop neglecting the needs of our off reservation members. If they want home ownership we need to find a way to assist them. Finally, we need to deal with our Descendants. Let's work together and vote on this issue. We can't plan for our future if we don't know our numbers.

HOW CAN THE TRIBAL GOVERNMENT HELP YOU SUCCEED?

Hiring practices need to be changed. We need to actively recruit Tribal Members first even if that requires more schooling, training, or childcare. If you plan on moving back to the reservation there must be adequate housing. We need to invest more in Tribal Member tailored substance abuse and mental health programs. We have to start grooming and preparing our children to provide a sustainable future for our Tribe. Educational enrichment programs will help our kids begin to decide for themselves what interests them and if their interest will blossom in to a career. Tribal Members students should be given a second chance to fulfill their educational dreams even if it requires forgiving Tribal student loan debt. Everyone deserves a second chance.

WHEN WILL WE BE READY TO RUN OUR GOVERNMENT AND OUR ENTERPRISES?

When members decide to change careers we need to provide support at all levels. New jobs will be developed as the needs arise. In today's changing world we have to be able to adapt to existing and emerging markets. Tribal Members that meet the minimum requirements for their field need guaranteed jobs. The road to self-sufficiency can happen if we trust our members and allow them the chance to perform. This includes our ventures off the reservation. We need Doctors, Lawyers, Business and Financial Specialists, Teachers, Farmers, Ranchers, as well as Laborers to name a few so we can skillfully prepare for our future.

The days of Tribal Council dictating our direction without our consideration is outdated. We must work together to build a sustainable reservation. The best ideas come from those we often overlook.

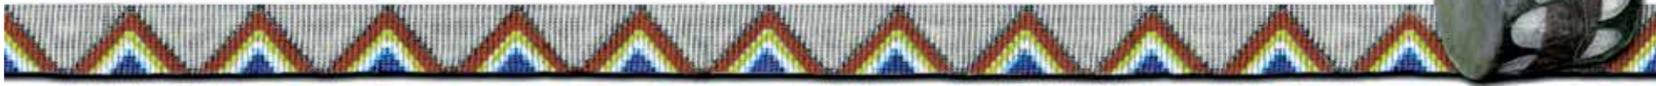

Are you ready to answer the call and help our people?

Respectfully, Kevin Frost

IHS FOOTBALL

Vikes drop Cats another notch

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

Intriguing enough an enigma to generate a faint blip on the Class 1A radar when the CHSAA Now.com preseason rankings came out August 17, and regularly re-gaining that 'Others Receiving Votes' status since, Center still hadn't yet taken the big step towards cracking the poll's top-ten.

But Friday night, Oct. 23, CHS appeared still trying to take that stride.

Welcoming Ignacio to Viking Field at Center Community Park, last year's Southern Peaks Conference surprise improved to 5-3 overall, 2-2 in the SPC – the program finished 5-4, 3-2 in 2014 – with a 36-6 defeat of the rebuilding Bobcats.

Dropped to 0-8 (0-4 SPC) after its 12th consecutive loss dating back to last fall, IHS did avoid a third straight shutout – after near-identical 41-0 setbacks versus Monte Vista on Oct. 9, and 10/16 at Centauri – thanks to freshman Lawrence Valdez's 90-yard kickoff-return touchdown along Ignacio's sideline, but pass defense again proved an agonizing Achilles' heel.

Falcon senior Christopher Martin had fired four TD's against the Cats in La Jara, and Viking junior Jorge Venzor managed to precede, then most importantly follow Valdez's runback with aerial TD's covering 49 and 67 yards. Senior Angel Villagomez, on the receiving end of the second strike, then took an interception back for a key six points and a 20-6 lead after only one wild quarter of action.

A 15-yard carry by junior Nabor Quintana put CHS up by 20 points at halftime, and another returned pick put the game decisively out of reach, even with Ignacio again able to fairly fluster a foe with its 'Polecat' offense.

Only an Oct. 30 trip to Dolores remains on the 2015 schedule, Ponch Garcia's first at IHS' helm. And the nemesis Bears will be just as hungry to go into winter's hibernation as the Bobcats; DHS (2-6, 0-4) fared worse out in the San Luis Valley on the 23rd, losing 48-0 at Monte Vista as the Pirates (7-1, 4-0) primed themselves to visit rivals Centauri (5-3, 4-0) on the 30th with the SoPeaks' championship at stake.

Cats claw Lady Mavs

Ignacio JV player Jade Richards (27) sets amidst a flock of attentive Mancos Lady Jays during 2A/1A San Juan Basin League play inside IHS Gymnasium on Oct. 15. The Cats downed MHS 25-23, 25-8, 25-22, then resumed their winning ways on the 24th versus Norwood (25-15, 25-15, 15-7) after falling in three at Telluride on the 17th.

Seen from the viewpoint of teammate Leela Rosa (5), Ignacio JV players Allisianna Baker (12) and Misty Egger (17) prepare to simultaneously pass the same ball during 2A/1A San Juan Basin League play inside IHS Gymnasium on Oct. 24. Building upon previous success within the house against Mancos (25-23, 25-8, 25-22) on the 15th, the Cats rebounded from a loss on the 17th at Telluride by clawing through the Lady Mavericks 25-15, 25-15, 15-7.

C-team rallies at Telluride

Ignacio C-team'er Namichen Oberly (16) spots both the ball and an opening in Norwood's defense through which she can attack during 2A/1A San Juan Basin League play inside IHS Gymnasium on Oct. 15. Winning their fifth straight match and improving to 14-4 overall – mirroring the varsity's mark, mind you – the Cats rallied past the Lady Mavericks 23-25, 25-15, 15-5. Previously, the squad had defeated Dolores in two (25-17, 25-23) on the 22nd and had won 25-20, 25-15 at Telluride on the 17th in its last regular-season road match of 2015.

Ignacio Volleyball C-team skipper Katrina Richards keeps a watchful eye on her team during its 23-25, 25-15, 15-5 defeat of Norwood in 2A/1A San Juan Basin League home action on Oct. 24. The come-from-behind win was the squad's fifth straight, and it improved IHS to an impressive 14-4 overall – mirroring the varsity's mark, mind you – going into the Oct. 27 regular-season finale versus 3A Pagosa Springs. Before rallying past the Lady Mavericks, IHS had swept Dolores 25-17, 25-23 on the 22nd and prevailed 25-20, 25-15 at Telluride on Oct. 17.

NHS junior Macie Magallon, however, was unquestionably present and as powerful as expected, and often singlehandedly willed the Lady Mavericks to do their worst towards spoiling Senior Day for IHS regulars Miel Diaz, Chrystianne Valdez, Ellie Seibel, Cortney Wilson-Baker and Spanish foreign-exchange JV/C player Miriam Fernandez (suddenly serenaded later by fans and teammates with 'Happy Birthday to You,' to boot).

"For me it was really emotional, because this is the only sport in high school I play. So knowing that this is my last year really ... hit my heart," Diaz said of the pre-match salute. "But then I figured out how to control that."

"It was really emotional in the beginning," junior middle Kelly Campbell agreed. "And then we finally started to get it together, thinking past our emotions, and it went really well."

Well enough to overcome two disappointing endings after outlasting – via a Seibel kill bringing up game point, then an overpass-kill by junior Sheigh Pollock – Norwood 25-23 in a see-saw game one, with Campbell smashing three straight slides to call a badly-needed timeout with the guests trailing 17-8 in game four.

The last of the three was the most incredible attack – other than a Magallon missile, which Thompson somehow dug, but which still had enough fuel to carry it all the way up into the ceiling – of the afternoon, being that Campbell sliced the shot back inside the antenna, missing it by an inch, from out of bounds and downing it almost completely parallel to the net on the enemy's side.

"I was actually surprised on that one ... because we've been working so hard on down-the-line slides," head coach Thad Cano said. "And for her to make that adjustment when we hadn't practiced that was pretty amazing."

"You know ... I don't know," Campbell said, searching for an explanation. "I just started focusing on what I needed to do: Battered the ball and get a point!"

Norwood managed to regain some momentum for the inevitable game five, but Campbell's stoic solo stuff of Magallon sealing up the fourth for all practical purposes showed which squad would ultimately secure victory.

"Tips that had been falling in the past, they were picking up. They were doing great reading, Shoshone digging hard hits – loving it, and the team rallying behind ... it was one hundred percent a team effort," Cano said.

"Everybody's wanting to win, wanting this victory," Diaz concurred. "And it just took confidence as well ... knowing that you can make a good pass, make a good hit, knowing that you can place the ball well."

"It was all just a mental thing. We figured out we can beat them, decided to play the game that we know how to play ... and to play it well, to the best of our ability!"

Lady Maverick senior Shayla Carver started game five on serve, and NHS (12-5) took an early 4-3 lead on a Magallon mash set by junior Nataly Gonzalez. But when IHS' serving picked up steam, leading to a Thompson ace and 14-11 advantage, the outcome was all but chiseled in stone.

Valdez, the team's libero, became a one-woman cleanup crew with multiple digs during a frenetic last-point exchange, and junior Alex Forsythe eventually downed a left-to-right cross-court spike to lock in a 25-23, 22-25, 23-25, 25-15, 15-11 triumph – boosting the Volleys up to 14-4 overall, and an impressive 5-2 in full-pulls.

"It took focusing on their arm(s) and how they were swinging, because they were tipping a lot," Campbell said. "We have a big block, so there are teams who've discovered if they tip right we can't really cover that."

"It's really stressful, but it's just really important to keep an even head."

"I think it did take quite a bit of effort, but we've gone through adversity and we've figured out how to control those emotions pretty well," said Diaz. "I think we all did really good."

Diaz notched a team-high seven kills versus DHS (now 9-9) but numbers from the NHS match had not yet been totaled by press time Monday. Still the stats were likely just as strong, if not stronger all around; Seibel contributed six kills versus the Lady Bears, Forsythe four and Campbell three as Thompson totaled 18 assists.

Campbell had eight total blocks (five solo) against DHS and neared that neighborhood against Norwood, while Valdez's eight digs were tops versus DHS with Diaz and Forsythe close at seven apiece and Seibel at six.

"The girls played with tons of heart," concluded Cano. "I can't be more proud than I am right now."

"I can say that boldly," he continued. "As long as we stay healthy, no adversity ... we'll see you at State."

The postseason push begins Saturday, Oct. 31, with the 2A-District 3 Tournament in Dolores.

Horoscopes by "The Star Lady"

♄ CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 – Jan. 20)

Explore your options CAPRICORN. With the SUN and MERCURY in a social area now, Social Media might be one way of participating with groups, friends, or community affairs. Develop your future plans and communicate your thoughts and ideas clearly. There are others who might misinterpret your message. The main goal is to keep confusion at a minimum. The planet of peace (VENUS) is at a high point this month and it may stimulate your ambitions. Keep in mind that your actions should be of the highest order.

♈ AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 – Feb. 18)

The SUN shines high, and brightly in your chart this month. Look for fresh possibilities on the 5th, and 10th. They might bring rewards that could super-charge your status at work, or with personal objectives. Travel may be in the stars on the 8th, or 12th when VENUS and MARS enter friendly LIBRA. Positive developments regarding finances remain in effect for the whole month, thanks to giant JUPITER'S influence in a money zone. Funds may come from a source outside of your own earnings.

♊ PISCES (Feb. 19 – March 20)

Hey PISCES PEOPLE...did you know that the SUN, MERCURY, AND NEW MOON are presently taking command of your long distance travel section? Just so you know, favorable plans can easily be put together this month. Furthermore a JUPITER/MARS hook up in the partnership area suggests constructive growth with meaningful relationships. Pay attention when making important decisions on the 24th. MERCURY squares off with NEPTUNE, and mistakes, or confusion might rule the day.

♈ ARIES (March 21 – April 20)

A loving tie between VENUS and MARS on the 2nd launches your month in a positive way. Personal relationships might take a turn toward more serious commitments when the dynamic duo (Venus & Mars) enter the sign of LIBRA, (8th & 12th) respectively. The FULL MOON in GEMINI on the 25th enhances communications with folks at a distance, and lots of conversations with those closer to you. This is a holiday to enjoy with your family, celebrate it with peace, and harmony ARIES.

♉ TAURUS (April 21 – May 20)

Lucky planets increase your chances of a small windfall. But that's not the main theme for you TAURUS. Relationships are the focal point as the SUN and MERCURY, aided by the NEW MOON on the 11th vitalize close associations. Make it a point to be cooperative. A stubborn, or fixed attitude won't work. VENUS your sign ruler shifts into LIBRA on the 8th and begins to work its love magic. Make your Turkey Day celebration a day of harmony, balance, and humor, with tasty dishes to share with others.

♊ GEMINI (May 21 – June 21)

Keep your eyes on the prize GEMINI. In your case, it's your work, daily routine, physical condition, and domestic duties. As is typical for you, the days fill up quickly. Maybe more so now that JUPITER is living in the area of your daily practices. The work section being fueled, relates to your performance. A strong, but sensitive, NEW MOON influence on the 11th might have you making a few improvements in your job. SATURN currently in the partnership area, may possibly encourage a relationship commitment.

♋ CANCER (June 22 – July 22)

The SUN, MERCURY, and NEW MOON power up the "good time" section of your Horoscope. This is the month that launches the holiday season. The emphasis is on fun MOON KIDS. VENUS slips into your domestic area on the 8th, and stays all month. It's practically a Celestial guarantee of love, laughter, and delicious food. MARS crosses the threshold of the peacemaker sign (LIBRA) on the 12th and acts as an insurance policy to discourage family disagreements. Happy Thanksgiving

♌ LEO (July 23 – Aug. 22)

Happy memories of past Thanksgiving dinners may cross your mind as you fondly recall old family traditions, and recipes. If you're so inclined, the NEW MOON'S influence might have you reinventing some of those old recipes to surprise your family. Small changes are more easily accepted. A divisive connection between SATURN AND NEPTUNE on the 26th may stir up ancient family secrets, or issues. For the sake of keeping the peace, it may be best to just leave them buried.

♍ VIRGO (Aug. 23 – Sept. 23)

Bold influences are at work this month as MARS and JUPITER in your sign arouse your natural instincts to go in search of answers to feed your quest for information. The SUN and MERCURY in mysterious SCORPIO might be hiding secrets that you are most anxious to solve. More than likely you'll know what to do. Use your best judgment VIRGO. After the 8th some of your attention turns to finance. VENUS may be helpful as it begins to power up your earnings and income. Stick with your practicality.

♎ LIBRA (Sept. 24 – Oct. 23)

November's planetary pattern is sure to please. First off your lovely planet VENUS glides into your sign on the 8th, and immediately amplifies your charm factor. But that's not all. Relationships may become steamy, and unpredictable. Fiery MARS bursts into your sign on the 12th and motivates you into making a decision. Later in the month the FULL MOON in airy GEMINI on the 25th could have you planning a lively trip for December. Careful ... SATURN'S influence might delay things. Plan ahead.

♏ SCORPIO (Oct. 24 – Nov. 22)

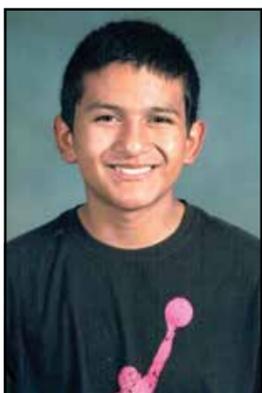

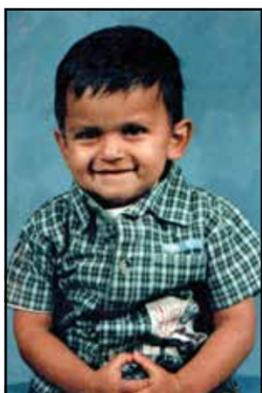

SUPER BIRTHDAY GREETINGS SCORPIO! An empowering NEW MOON in your sign on the 11th sets the tone for the month. In addition to gaining an extra hour, NOVEMBER has transformative powers to offer you, a regeneration on a personal level. This is the start of an information cycle that may help you to learn something very important. Unload the dead wood, and venture into uncharted territory. Your allies, JUPITER and PLUTO support your efforts on the 5th and 10th. Opportunities are there for the taking. Growth and success may follow your decision.

♐ SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 – Dec. 21)

The social side of November's forecast begins on the 8th when VENUS enters like-minded LIBRA, and it's reinforced by MARS on the 12th. Give your friendships a chance to grow Saggies. Invitations add some excitement to your life this month. SATURN in your sign now can be an energy drain. And it might have you moping around the house doing nothing. But on the plus side MERCURY shifts into your sign on the 20th, and is soon followed by the SUN on the 22nd. That's a BIG recharge for you Sagittarius!

EXPRESS YOUR OPINIONS

SECURITY AT SCHOOL

Mique,
My fiancée, John has attended Pueblo Community College/SCCC for over 2 years. He says portions of his tuition pay for a nurse and for security. Immediately following the Umpqua Oregon College killings, I asked him what security measures does your school have and how many security personnel patrol? He said, "We don't have much, nothing to speak of anyway." "As well, as if there's a nurse-I've never seen her."
In the weeks that followed, John went forth to speak to Student Council about there not being an armed security presence. He said that Student Council does not have the authority to address his concerns such as these as they must meet with approval of the president of Pueblo and their CEO's.

There are approximately 20 Tribal member students enrolled in this Community College. I am sure our students have to think about their own safety during their time at school.

On Oct 21, 2015, my fiancée John Stein, 3 members of Student Council, 1 Admin person, and 3 representatives of the main Pueblo Colorado campus met to discuss John's concerns.

Basic outcome, a camera might be added here or there, replace light bulbs in the dim lit parking lot, but for the most part, John was told that it was not in the budget for the students and staff to be protected by armed security. And if, a big if, our school were to get an armed security, it would be for a few hours in the evenings. An what about day-time hours? Not adequate at all.

After a walk through assessment done on Wednesday morning on Oct. 21, 2015, the main spokesman from the main campus in Pueblo, stated something to the effect of, "If you feel more secure and safer carrying a gun, I support it as long as you do it legally."

What?? We don't need a free for all with handguns! What IS needed is for the powers that be, i.e the president and the CEO's of Pueblo Community College/SCCC to take some serious and immediate action!! Responsibly, armed security during school sessions, more lighting in the parking lots, more camera placements, two-way radio's to communicate with security and the office, an intercom system, classrooms equipped with phones direct to 911, lock down drills and fire drills, a known procedure for students and teachers to anonymously report a student that is exhibiting potentially aggressive issues, a security check point with someone checking ID's as they enter the building, that is what is needed.

As parents and family members it is your responsibility to insist upon safety for your loved ones, and if it does not meet your expectations, you have choices. They are other schools out there that provide armed security and also provide a solid education. At the end of the day, ask yourself, are your loved ones LESS important than Pueblo's?

Durango, Mancos and Fremont Campus do not have armed security, however since the main Pueblo Campus does, it makes one wonder-are we all paying for THEIR armed police force? Hmmmmm ...

There are other business entities housed in the same building at Pueblo Community College/SCCC, perhaps all entities come together and off set this ever so valuable cost.

Scenario: You saw them off to school this morning. A deranged gunman entered your loved ones school today; You're crying inconsolably and still yet, you are needed to identify what remains of someone that you love more than life itself. Let's be very clear, armed security does NOT ensure it will never happen, however armed security and other common sense safety protocols are deterrents that help to promote a safer and more secure environment for all. Let's do it together. Make calls, write letters, start a petition. It has GOT to happen, someone needs to speak up to protect all of the students, the faculty and administration.

Make calls, start a petition or write letters-Together we can make a "safer" difference!

I have a voice, you have a voice, let's RAISE it! Together we can make a difference!

IGNACIO COMMUNITY

Campbell Park and the little known monument

By Robert L. Ortiz
THE SOUTHERN UTE DRUM

Do you know where Campbell Park is? Or did you know there's a monument dedicated to those individuals who have made a significant contribution to the town of Ignacio or community, in the park?

It's located at the top of Candelaria Heights, where Candelaria Drive, Romero Avenue and Becker Street intersect. The monument and park is named after former U.S. Senator, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. The monument was erected to honor those in the community who've contributed to the town of Ignacio – a community of 800 or so, a self-proclaimed, "Tri-ethnic" community.

It's to remember people who have done something significant for the town.

Southern Ute tribal member and U.S. Veteran Roderick Grove's name is on the monument as well the names of other tribal members who contributed to the community.

When asked about how he felt about his name being nominated, then selected to be on the monument, Grove said, "I thought it was a joke. I was the Service officer for the tribe at the time, it was a surprise."

In a small ceremony of about 40 people, the monument was dedicated in Campbell Park.

On August 3, 1990 President of the United States George H. W. Bush de-courtesy Town of Ignacio

Ben Nighthorse Campbell Community Service Park Memorial is located in Campbell park, bearing the names of those who made significant contributions to the town Ignacio or community.

clared the month of November as National American Indian Heritage Month, thereafter commonly referred to as Native American Heritage Month.

The Bill read in part that "the President has authorized and requested to call upon Federal, State and local Governments, groups and organizations and the people of the United States to observe such month with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities". This was a landmark Bill honoring America's tribal people.

A number of Southern Ute names are on the monument including Sunshine Cloud Smith, Pearl Casias, Arnold Santistevan, Guy Pinnecoose, Leonard C. Burch, Roderick Grove, and Howard Richards Sr., Smith, Burch, Grove and Richards are veterans as well.

Names can submitted for consideration of those who made a contribution to the town or community.

As a precursor to Native American month The Southern Ute Drum will feature other articles pertaining to the distinguished month, as well the 2016 Tribal Calendar honoring Southern Ute Veterans as well.

The Drum is asking Southern Ute Veterans and their families for assistance in gathering photos of veterans to be featured in the calendar.

The Drum will work with in collaboration with the Southern Veterans Association in a group photo during the supper break of the upcoming Veterans Powwow, Saturday, Nov. 7 at the Sky Ute Casino Resort. All Southern Ute Veterans are invited to be a part in the photo.

ATTENTION ALL VETERANS & FAMILIES!

The Southern Ute Drum is compiling photos of ALL our living and deceased Southern Ute Veterans for the 2016 Southern Ute Tribal Calendar. We would be HONORED to feature a photo of you, or your military loved one. Southern Ute Veterans are invited to be a part of a group photo to be taken during the dinner break of this year's Southern Ute Veterans Powwow, Saturday, Nov. 7 at the Sky Ute Casino Resort.
