Tribal members from the Southern Ute, Ute Mountain Ute, and Northern Ute Indian Reservations gathered at the Sky Ute Casino Resort on Friday Oct. 14 to take part in the 2nd Annual “Let us all wake up and speak Ute” conference. The conference spotlights on the history of the Ute language while bringing recognition to the younger generation.

Elwood Kent provided the opening prayer prior to a smudging session conducted by Jason Scott and Gilbert Dutchie. Afterwards, members from the Native American Youth Organization (NAYO) performed the Flag Song.

who came to help keep our great language alive. Enjoy being able to speak the Ute language, and never forget to teach it to your children.”

Southern Ute Tribal Council members met with representatives from the Cedar Point Housing Initiative, Southern Ute Housing Department, and Lands Division on Monday, Oct. 17 at the groundbreaking celebration in the Cedar Point Subdivision. Over 80 houses and 25 townhomes will begin their year and a half production starting this winter. The development project began in 2014 after the Southern Ute Growth Fund did a housing assessment for tribal members on the reservation, which concluded there was a need of more housing and rentals.

The Cedar Point Subdivision project is fully funded by the tribe and will consist of four development phases, starting with phase 1 that will include 25 townhomes and 23 single-family lots. Infrastructure of water, gas,

TRIBAL AFFAIRS

Council, membership discuss $126 mill settlement

By Sacha Smith
THE SOUTHERN UTE DRUM

On Friday, Oct. 21 Tribal Council held a special meeting with the tribal membership regarding a recent settlement in the tribe’s breach of trust case. The tribe took this time to explain the history of the case and to hear from the tribal members on what they think should be done with the money the tribe receives from settlement.

Tom Shipps legal counsel to the tribe explained that the case has been ongoing since 2013, when the tribe joined nine other tribes in suing the United States for failing to provide an accounting of tribal trust accounts and for mismanaging trust assets and non-monetary trust resources. Ultimately, the tribe settled the claim for $126 million – before lawsuit costs.

The meeting was divided into two sessions: a morning session for elders (55 and older) and an afternoon meeting for members 54 and under. Tribal elders packed the Multi-Purpose Facility Friday morning to voice their concerns and ideas about how the settlement money should be utilized.

There were varying views amongst the 80 plus elders in attendance, some stated the settlement money should be paid out 100 percent to the membership from the youngest member to the eldest; others felt the settlement should be paid out 100 percent, but the elders should receive a bigger percentage of the pay out; and some felt that a portion of the money should go to other programs like housing, culture and or Ute language revitalization.

Tribal elders gave council an array of examples on how the money would help them better their current living situations.

Tribal elder, Elwood Kent addressed Tribal Council in Ute before speaking in English. Kent spoke of his struggles and said the money should be paid out fully to the membership.

“We want to use [the money] while we are all still here ... give it to us,” Kent said.

Tribal elder Kathleen Tobias Hatch recalled growing up with the grandparents and great grandparents of the Tribal Council members. She talked about how the Utes struggled years ago.

“I think we should all get it 100 percent ... we’ve struggled,” Hatch said urging Council to listen to their people. “This belongs to all of us.”

During the elder meeting a hand written petition was put together stating that the settlement should be paid out 100 percent to all tribal members. At the end of the meeting the petition had over 80 signatures.

The afternoon session of 54 and under saw a similar turnout to the elders meeting. The younger crowd in attendance brought forth different ideas, but many sided with the elders, stating that the settlement should be paid out to the membership 100 percent.

Raymond Baker suggested investing the money for the future. Stating that a big payout does sound nice, but investing that large sum of money would be a smart decision as well, he said.

Tribal member Trae Seibel, 24, shared his different ideas on how the money could be utilized. Including a 100 percent payout, an annuity for those members 18-24 and possibly putting away some money for the first descendants of the tribe – who do not receive the same benefits as enrolled members.

Some members said they would like to see some improvements around the reservation like fixing the Pine River Indian Irrigation Project that was cited in the case as being neglected and unfunded. Other ideas included building something permanent on the reservation for the membership.

Brothers Dewayne (9) and Elliott Hendren (10) said they would like to see some of the money go towards a football field or a skate park on the reservation. Andrew Frost said he would like to see an outdoor arbor built to host pow-wows and gourd dances.

Chairman Clement J. Frost thanked those that came to the meeting to share their ideas. The meeting was just one way the tribe has reached out to its membership concerning the settlement. A few weeks ago tribal members received a letter from the tribe asking for their ideas via direct contact, mail or email.

"It's important to listen to you all; young and old," Frost said.

Frost added that the tribe has not received the funds yet and Tribal Council had not made any decisions on how the funds would be utilized.

Mr. Shipps stated that the tribe could expect to receive the funds within the next 4 to 8 weeks, according to the U.S. government.

and electricity will also be conducted in the first phase. The 23 single-family lots will be available first and construction of the 25 townhomes is expected to begin spring of 2017.

Tribal chairman Clement J. Frost spoke at the groundbreaking celebration, where he stated that the expansion of Cedar Point would assist many tribal families and residents.

"Today is the first step in a monumental project," he said. "This is a milestone for our community, and we're very excited to provide new homes for tribal members. I want to give great thanks for all the teams who were able to put this together. The future is going to be very bright for these homes."

April Toledo, construction project manager, stated that there has been a number of interests in the townhomes, and encourages tribal members to contact the Housing Department for early requests.

"Now is the time where we can accommodate tribal members with their requests, and our team is available anytime for people who walk in with suggestions of what they want for their homes," she stated. "We are very flexible, so hopefully this will inspire tribal members to come in and talk with us."

Toledo added that the Cedar Point Subdivision project is the first collaboration with the Housing Department and the Southern Ute Growth Fund Realty.

"I'm really excited for this because we've never collaborated with the Growth Fund's Realty, as far as construction goes. That's what makes this project unique. With all of our other projects, we'd have to pay the consultants and contractors ourselves. This time, the Growth Fund is providing all of that for us free of charge ... I think that owning a home is the ultimate dream for many people."

Tribal members interested in these new homes must be eligible for both a home-site assignment and a home loan to be considered. Tribal members cannot have an existing assignment, and must also qualify with Tribal Credit.

Tribal members interested in the new homes can contact the Housing Department at 970-563-4575.

A National Congress of American Indian recap

By Richard Jefferson
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

The Desert Southwest ... It is October 10 in Phoenix, A.Z. the site of this year's annual conference. This National Congress of American Indians brings together Indigenous People of North America for a legislative arm recognized by the federal government. The issues are common and together this body of tribal leaders assists in demonstrating that together, good if not great, things can happen in Indigenous Country. The scene was set. The fall weather in Arizona provides a late summer and comfortable sun experience for all that were in attendance.

courtesy Richard Jefferson/Special to the Drum

Southern Ute Nation was well represented. Tribal Council/past and present, Veterans Association, Sunshine Cloud Smith Youth Advisory Council and other interested Southern Utes in attendance. And the issues were many. Elders, veterans and youth were a big part of the agenda and focus of this monumental gathering of indigenous leaders and concerned people. Dr. James Jefferson led in the opening ceremony carrying the lead flag in the Color Guard presentation.

The youth were acknowledged and celebrated during the entire conference. They were very present in crowds and meeting rooms at NCAI. The conference was well organized mixed with meet and greets, cultural entertainment/educational experience. Breakout session; sources told me that a youth council went into late evening one night, until they could reach a consensus and end unified. Not only is this gathering important to educated, but to showcase. Introduce people who don't get to experience life off the reservation along with the opportunity to hear the troubles of other nations stuck or struck with social, economic, cultural and environmental problems. The youth portion gave these talented minds education on significant and common issues and tools to assist their respective communities across Indigenous Country.

The elder issues were directed to tribal leaders to start speaking up at the local, area and regional Indian Health Service personnel. If you have the resources go all the way to the "Hill" – Capitol Hill. Dr. Jefferson was first to remind the audience on how to be effective in D.C. because he did just that.

In his earlier life he worked in Washington when he was an intern at the Smithsonian. He worked the great halls and trains where congressional members, staff and aides can be caught and cornered for getting the issues on Congress's agenda.

"You have to be in their face all the time and at every occasion," Dr. Jefferson said.

The Veterans issues were very controversial and that is not confirmed, most of the veteran breakout sessions were closed to non-vets and the press. Information floating around the halls dealt with access to the Veterans Hospitals and other essential services. IHS was named as another obstacle. If you are a tribal veteran I would contact your local association for details.

Albeit the conference had shining stars as part of the outreach programs at Harvard and the University of Arizona's Native Nations Institute. An "Honoring Nations" national award program where "best practices" programs are implemented in their communities and are willing to share the success story. And this year's winners are; The Alaska Rural Utility Collaborative a tribal and community water system, The Calricaraq; Indigenous Yup'ik Wellbeing an elder driven program for Yup'ik culture, The Caw Pawa Laakin – They are not forgotten, using technology to re-identify cultural location, places and language on maps, The Chickasaw Nation Sick Child Care Program for mildly-ill children to attend in safe care so parent can stay at work, The Native American Drug and Gang Initiative Task Force an Intertribal effort of the Nations of Wisconsin addressing drug and gang activity in their remote communities, The Project Tiwahu – Redefining Tigua Citizenship is the Pueblo of Ysleta del Sur that created an initiative designed to reform and self-determine citizenship requirements. This project removed federally mandated enrollment requirements. The Harvard Project on American Indian Economic Development can be found at www.hpaied.org.

NCAI has been advocating for tribes for many years. This conference was a great gathering and they have put together the breakout sessions to educate and assist with the dissemination of information. The Trade Show was a great area of the conference. Tons of networking with vendors there was lots of arts and crafts, environmental consulting firms, technology, and people collecting data. Walking through individuals were talking and mingling. Enjoying a break from the speakers upstairs.

As the sunsets on another meeting of the minds in Indigenous Country closes, take with you hope, assurance and confidence NCAI along with you have an effective voice in the United States Congress.

Tribal elder Pearl Casias recently met with tribal members Lark GoodTracks and Cynthia Buckskin on Thursday, Oct 13 to discuss each other's ancestors during a family tree meeting at the Southern Ute Cultural Center & Museum. Casias said she has helped approximately 25 tribal members in learning about their family history, stating that she got involved with aiding tribal members after learning about her grandparents' relatives. Casias said she helped tribal members find ancestors who lived as far back as the 1880s. UTE LANGUAGE CONFERENCE • FROM PAGE 1 with the language and gaining the influence to learn it.

"It's good to see that this is still carrying on. We all speak different aspects of Ute, but we're still related by language, blood, and spirit. When I was young, I would listen to these traditional songs that were sang in Ute. I didn't quite understand them, but as I got older I paid more attention. They're the songs of those who are gone. That shows how much our lives have changed, but we still have our culture to keep ourselves strong. We need to continue on with unity and harmony, and pass this knowledge and history to our young ones, because they will be the survivors."

Tribal elder Pearl Casias joined fellow elder Mary Inez Cloud and Ignacio resident Tom Givon during a discussion about the Ute Language Dictionary that is available to all tribal members. It includes several introductory chapters that link the words of the Ute sounds system and alphabet, the grammar of word-usage, the derivation of new words from existing ones, and a detailed guidance to the structure of the dictionary.

"I'm used to being the only non-Ute person in the room for many years," joked Tom Givon. "It's good to know the knowledge of the historical language featured in these books. When I started to work with the Tribe, there was question in having faith in one another. My greatest nightmare is that these three books are going to be all that's left of the Ute language, which is why its crucial to push the knowledge of it into schools and homes. The main thing is if we can keep the language alive in the minds, hearts, ears, and mouth."

Later, Ute Mountain elder Betty Howe took the stage and invited attendees to join her in a traditional Ute sing-along.

"How are we going to teach our children?" Howe stated. "Our kids must be self-efficient and they need to go to school. We have to take care of ourselves, because what we put in our hearts is whom we become and grow up into. Love one another."

The Tribe welcomed special enthusiast guest speaker Dr. Landon Real Bird from the Crow Nation to speak about recognizing Native heritage while making comments on Indigenous oppression.

"Let me share this one thing, the U.S. did a number on us Indian people," he claimed. "You're going to have to eat, educate, and govern on your own, and it's going to have to be us as Indian people to tell ourselves what to do. If we don't have these structures, there will be people in these corporate businesses that will want to buy our rights, resources, and holdings that we have."

Real Bird added, "If we don't organize, plan, teach, then we're going to have a bad time ... when we work together, we become stronger. But nowadays we have to deal with this dilemma of dividing and conquering. We have to realize we need to take control of these and identify that language is important and defines who we are – you cannot be taxed on your language."

Real Bird continued his lecture by inviting students from the Southern Ute Indian Montessori Academy to join him in a sign language exercise where they sang the song titled, "Hello My Friend", and an original titled, "Bethlehem", that was written by Betty Howe.

"There are various methods to teach the language," commented Real Bird. "You learn it by listening. Learn by doing, and learn in a non-threatening way."

October, American Pharmacists Month

By Paige Kapp
SU HEALTH CENTER

Know your medicine, know your pharmacist.

In an effort to encourage conversation between people who take medications, and the pharmacists who dispense them, October was declared American Pharmacists' Month. This is our yearly opportunity to highlight the services that pharmacists provide, and to build personal relationships with our patients. We, as pharmacists, encourage you to ask questions about your medications.

Pharmacists are drug therapy experts. While we are most often seen filling prescriptions, we also check each prescription for drug/drug interactions, as well as making sure that the dosage is a good fit for our patients. We provide immunizations, and we help people quit using commercial tobacco. We often get questions about how herbal, over-the-counter, and non-prescription medications may interact with the medications recommended by your doctor or primary care provider. We make recommendations to providers about drug alternatives to consider based on an individual patient's needs.

There are pharmacists who see patients and adjust their medications based on a given diagnosis. Others work in laboratories developing new drugs. Some are primarily in a teaching role, providing information to students, pharmacists and prescribers. Still others work providing drug information and advice through the Poison Control Center.

I'd like to take this opportunity to invite you for a medication review. If you are a patient at Southern Ute Health Center, call 970-563-4581 to schedule an appointment with a pharmacist. Bring all of your medications with you, including prescriptions, herbals, supplements, and over-the-counter medications, and the pharmacist will review these medications, discuss side effects and interactions, and address concerns you may have about your medications.

My name is Gerald Howe. I attend Ignacio Middle School where I am an 8th grader. My favorite subjects in school are science, math, language, and arts.

My parent/guardian is Erica Howe. I like participating in outdoor activities. I want to be a professional bass fisherman when I grow up.

I have been chosen as Southern Ute Tribal Student of the Month for the month of October because of good grades, positive behavior, and good attendance.

Comments: Gerald has been nominated for this honor because he is considered to be a very respectful young man and he demonstrates care for other people. Gerald has worked hard to be a valuable asset in the classroom and demonstrates his interest in learning. The teachers at the middle school appreciate having him in class.

IHS FOOTBALL

Bobcats come up six short in Walsenburg

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM
and David Tesitor
WORLD JOURNAL

Able to break four would-be tackles en route to a clutch 67-yard touchdown reception from senior quarterback Zach Weinreich with only 1:32 remaining, Ignacio senior Ethan Appenzeller would not be denied his chance to prolong the Bobcats' comeback bid Friday night, Oct. 21, in Walsenburg.

But with zero timeouts remaining, IHS' next move after senior Lorenzo Pena's point-after-kick was obvious and John Mall High School – already beyond energized by senior Evan Gonzales' performance – recovered the ensuing onside attempt to secure a tense 24-18 win in 1A Southern Peaks Conference action.

IHS dropped to 3-5 overall, 1-3 in the SPC, as Gonzales' career-high 224 rushing yards was his third 200-plus effort – all coming, ironically, against the Cats – and pulled him to within 115 of matching his 2015 output. With four TD carries, producing all JMHS' points against Ignacio, Gonzales will also go into the Panthers' Oct. 28 season-finale versus La Jara Centauri needing three more to match last year's 11.

But in Huerfano County, it was IHS striking first in their bid to crash John Mall's Homecoming bash. After the

Joel Priest/Special to the Drum

Ignacio's R.J. Sanchez (62) blocks Centauri's Brian Shawcroft (23) during action at IHS Field on Saturday, Oct. 15. The Bobcats lost 20-0 to the Falcons, then fell 24-18 in Walsenburg to John Mall on the 21st – leaving IHS with only an Oct. 29 contest versus Center remaining in 2016.

Bobcats' first series stalled, senior Timmy Plehinger came up with an interception three plays later, and junior Marcus Chapman hauled in a ten-yard score from Weinreich with 10:06 left in the opening quarter.

Aided by a 15-yard personal foul on a horse-collar tackle halting a 32-yard Gonzales run, the Panthers (3-5, 2-2 SPC) evened the score at 6-6 – completing a drive set up by junior Malachi Neil's first of two interceptions – with Gonzales bulling in from seven yards out with 1:50 left.

Wasting no time to up the ante, Gonzales burned through for a 52-yard TD and 12-6 lead with 10:02 left in the second quarter, after JMHS' defense came up with another vital stop. Trailing but still able to move the ball effectively, Ignacio reached the Panther 12 on their subsequent series. And though a lost fumble – smothered by senior Jeremiah Vigil – gave possession back to the Panthers at the 1, Gonzales was quickly dropped for a safety with 7:48 still before halftime.

Taking a measure of revenge, Gonzales would score from 16 yards out with just 65 seconds remaining, but the Cats thwarted the two-point conversion try to stay within ten, 18-8, at the break.

Despite a greatly reduced roster – the size being similar to that in IHS' gutsy 2014 road win over JMHS – Ignacio fought on, and cut the Panthers' advantage down to 18-11, via senior Lorenzo Pena's 19-yard field goal on a fourth-and-two with 6:02 left in the third quarter, setting the stage for a furious fourth.

IHS VOLLEYBALL

Ridgway dims senior spikers' shine

IHS falls 3-0 to ranked Lady Demons

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

While paying due tribute to six seniors suiting up for their final prep-level volleyball action inside IHS Gymnasium on Saturday, Oct. 22, the Volleys unfortunately got a glimpse at the future of one of the 2A/1A San Juan Basin League's top programs.

Dealt a healthy dose of freshman Emersyn Gentry as well as an expected amount of senior Saren Robinson, Ignacio held a lead only once – when Robinson hit long on the first exchange in Game 2 – before Game 3 when the spikers finally made a definite move to pressure circuit powerhouse Ridgway.

Ending a week which began with a 21-25, 15-25, 13-25 loss on the 18th to 2A Southern Peaks League force Del Norte (15-4 overall as of Monday, 10/24) and a 25-20, 25-14, 19-25, 25-22 win at SJBL stragglers Mancos on the 20th, IHS overcame an early 7-3 deficit in the third verse with RHS and go up 9-8 on a tricky serve by junior Allisianna Baker.

Classmate Avionne Gomez would soon regain Ignacio the lead at 10-9, and senior Alex Forsythe would do so at 13-12 with an ace after fellow senior Kelly Campbell downed a kill to even the count at a dozen each. Back and forth the sides would go, before the #8-ranked [CHSAANow.com Class 2A poll, issued 10/17] Lady Demons crept ahead 17-16 and took a two-point lead on a kill by junior Samantha Medina.

A Gomez serve-reception error and Robinson kill gave Ridgway (17-2, 13-1 SJBL) a crucial four-point lead, and the guests would complete their clinching 9-0 spree – securing a 25-16, 25-15, 25-16 sweep

Joel Priest/Special to the Drum

Ignacio junior Allisianna Baker (16) sends a spike past the block of Ridgway's Samantha Medina (10) during the Volleys' Senior Day match on Saturday, Oct. 22.

– with a Robinson smash, a roofing-the-set violation against Ignacio (7-12, 6-7), and an IHS net violation when Forsythe brushed the strings after Gentry's serve.

Playing without teammates Shoshone Thompson and Morgan Herrera, and given setting duty over sophomore Heather Kerrigan, Forsythe finished with a team-high four kills with no errors in 15 attempts for a .267 percentage. As a group, however, Ignacio managed just a -.014 rate (12k/13e/69att) while Ridgway hit .197 (24k/11e/66att), led by Robinson's 11 kills at .226 and Gentry's seven at .150.

Robinson also had four aces and seven digs, while Medina came up with a match-best 14 and junior Hunter Gentry another 12. Baker had eight digs for IHS, with Gomez contributing five and Forsythe four to the defensive cause, which also counted an impressive seven total (four solo) Campbell blocks and three (one solo) by sophomore Misty Egger – given the front-line start in Herrera's stead.

Up next for Ignacio will be the 2A-District 3 Tournament, Oct. 28-29 in Ridgway, with a 4 p.m. clash against Norwood (9-9, 8-5) up first on Day 1. The Volleys and Lady Mavericks split their regular-season encounters with each defeating the other in four games, but NHS emerged a plus-8 in aggregate point differential.

The event's first- and third-place teams will advance to 2A-Region G (with the first-place team hosting), and the second-place squad will travel to Region C. Winners of the eight regionals and four 'wild cards' will earn spots in the State Championships, Nov. 11-12 up in Denver.

BOXING

Garcia going for 30th pro win

Veteran headlines 'Fright Night' at Sky Ute

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

It's no surprise boxing promoters know that booking one of the Four Corners' two most established fighters for a weekend card somewhere in the region generally equates to a successful venture.

Area outfit Left Hook Promotions sought to score both for its 'Fright Night' lineup Saturday, Oct. 29, at Sky Ute Casino Resort Events Center in Ignacio, and feature both La Plata County local Elco Garcia and Aztec, New Mexico's Joe Gomez amongst several other locally- and regionally-known names.

Monday via phone, however, Gomez (20-7-1, 9 KO) confirmed he'd unfortunately be sitting this one out.

"I was supposed to be fighting Stevie Marquez – he was my third professional fight, I think?" said the 'Ironman,' correctly recalling the 2004 encounter against an opponent who's won five straight bouts since last May.

"But my wife and I, we had our little boy on the first. There was some complications and our boy was flown to Albuquerque. And we've been down here pretty much since, and I'm down here now."

"So it was hard to postpone the fight, you know," he continued, "but I've got a bigger 'fight' on my hands."

The Land of Enchant-

Joel Priest/Special to the Drum

La Plata County local Elco Garcia, seen connecting against Patrick Thompson during his last pro bout inside Sky Ute Casino Resort Events Center, will headline Saturday's 'Fright Night'.

ment's Duke City was where Garcia last saw action – on August 15 of last year, when he notched a unanimous-decision victory over Rahman Yusubov in a rematch of their January 2013 SUCREC pairing (which Garcia took via TKO).

Defeating Yusubov (now 11-24, 9 KO) again bumped 'The Animal' up to 29-9 (13 KO) as a professional, putting him on the verge of another, non-title-related personal milestone he said he'd most like to reach.

"I said I'm going to fight one more – maybe more – but I want to get thirty wins, you know?" he said Monday via phone. "That's my goal – get thirty wins, and go from there!"

That certainly would also go towards achieving another objective.

Garcia's last bout in Ignacio occurred last May, and before exiting the ring he visibly wasn't satisfied with the split decision awarded him over Patrick Thompson (currently 18-19-1, 8 KO), so a solid eight-round performance at 170 pounds against Juan Bladimir Hernandez (20-11) in the main event would indeed erase most memories of that outing.

"It's going to be a really tough fight; this guy's 25 years old, or 27, you know?" said Garcia, with a laugh. "He's young and has a pretty good record."

Filling Gomez's spot against Marquez (now 14-17-2) in the preceding bout, billed for eight at 154, will be Daniel Gonzalez (12-39-2). Slated for four rounds at 150 – with an extra pound allowed – will be Zamir Young (2-1-1, 1 no contest) and Miguel Gallegos (4-0-1), and fellow familiar Steve Victor (1-6-1) will stand in for four at 150 against well-traveled vet Edgar Pedraza (2-25-3).

First bell is scheduled for 7 p.m.

BOBCATS COME UP SIX SHORT • FROM PAGE 6

However, the Bobcats' furries didn't work totally in their favor; a pass-interference infraction and three more personal fouls – all on one drive – could, for all practical purposes, have brought the night to a fast end, but fortunately John Mall didn't profit.

Gonzales' ten-yard tote with 11:52 left in the game had rebuilt the hosts' lead to 13 points, and with the clock becoming just as problematic as either the Panthers or the penalty flags, Ignacio faced an uphill climb all the way to the end, with Appenzeller's grab-and-go putting the summit within reach.

But ultimately still out of range.

All told, Gonzales' work (24 carries, 9.3 yards per) led a ground game, which gained a reported 270 yards. Sophomore Nikko Vallejos added 24 yards on 3-of-13 passing, but was intercepted again after Plehinger's pick.

Defensively, John Mall notched four QB sacks (senior Elijah Sandoval led with two) and snared three interceptions (freshman Wesley Van Matre had the third). Neil batted away four additional IHS throws, while Gonzales registered a team-high six tackles.

With only a Saturday, Oct. 29, visit from Center left on their 2016 schedule, the Bobcats' statistics from the trip to Walsenburg had not been reported as of press time. CHS will come into the 1 p.m. contest standing 5-3 overall and 3-1 in conference after losing 28-14 at home on October 21 to Monte Vista (4-4, 3-1).

MATTHEW J. BOX FOR TRIBAL COUNCIL

2016 GENERAL ELECTION

Marjorie Borst

Mik' Nuchu, my Relatives: Thank you for your attention. Once again the Southern Ute Indian Tribe will be casting their vote this November 4, 2016 for two Tribal members to serve on the Southern Ute Tribal Council. I, Marjorie Borst humble ask for your vote. I am the daughter of the late Ollie Shuta and Mary Bent Box Chavez. My parents of humble beginnings inspired my faith in traditional values and they taught our family the importance of unity and fortitude.

The late Leonard C. Burch was a visionary person and along with past council members in the twentieth century took great care in establishing many of the Tribal Codes and Policies; creating five to ten year financial and comprehensive plans that would enhance and insure the sustainability of the Tribe. The Tribe approximately has 26 departments...all have mission statements that emphasize they would provide optimal services to the membership. My question to you, are we receiving optimal service from each department?

Today we are at the crossroads of change. I propose that if elected I will strongly encourage Tribal Council to thoroughly examine departments and divisions via the KPI system which captures changes in management systems by means of goals and objectives and if their programs are following the overall mission of the Tribal Government. Second, we need to update our Tribal Codes, this is to insure security and undermine all discrepancies of our government. I also would like to encourage and embrace a more open communication dialogue for the people to voice concerns. Let us make sure all department goals and objectives are not just words but action. Improving accountability is a must. We should never tire to seek ways to improve and streamline our services, all are vital to our wellbeing.

There are many issues that affect our lives; from employment to education, housing to health...Recently we have had some really, awesome meetings and I am very encouraged that we are working towards solutions. Let us keep voicing our opinions for change. Also, let us be clear, the most important is our identity. A greater emphasis should be placed on integrating Ute language. By utilizing technology and following the 30 recommendation introduced at the recent Ute Language Conference held here in Ignacio. Our culture is who we are and more importantly, by Tribal Council increasing the culture it reflects a desire by the leadership to integrate cultural values in the decision making process.

Back in 2009 to 2011, I served on our Tribal Council; it was an honor serving our people. During the beginning of my term the United States experienced a great recession, BP oil tanks exploded in the gulf, oil prices plunged and we were in the midst of a financial crisis, but thanks to the late Chairman Jim Newton and the entire council at the time, we explored solutions and we recovered by following the principles set forth in our financial plans.

Recently, I was honored to help develop the Southern Ute Bison and other Wild Game Cookbook which I took great care in creating healthy and delicious recipes with nutritional information. The cookbooks are free to the membership ... just pick up a copy or call the Southern Ute Natural Resource office.

Yes, we have challenges ahead and if you give me a chance I will do my best to bring change to our government. I am not running for some of you but for all of you. Your concerns are my concerns. My dedication, assisting others and my unwavering work ethic is accountable. I have served on various health boards, received an award in Business, graduate of Leadership LA Plata, a recipient of Who's Who in Colleges and Universities across the United States as well as being appointed to the Colorado State Governor's Council on physical Fitness establishes my credibility.

I step forward with courage and commitment. It is my sincere hope that you will consider my candidacy in the upcoming election.

Thank you, may we embrace one another with one heart, one mind, and plant the seeds of our culture for many generations.

Matthew J. Box

To my beloved Ute People, I am Matthew James Box, I am a Buffalo too. I ask, in a good way, to talk about my campaign to be elected as your Tribal Council Member. My folks are Eddie & Betty Box Jr. and I have lived here my entire life. The Southern Ute lands are my home and I am blessed to be a citizen of this great nation. Our traditional ways of life have taught us to pray and sacrifice for the betterment of our people and I ask humbly for your vote to serve as your Council Member.

Since 2005, I have been versed in the Southern Ute Tribal Constitution, Tribal Codes and Tribal Ordinances. Although there are more meetings and collaborative governmental achievements our Tribe has accomplished since 2005, I'll mention the ones I worked on and took very seriously for our people as a whole. The exercise of our 1873 Treaty rights of hunting and gathering of the Brunot Area, the historic approval of the Tribe's Title V Program authorizing the Tribe to implement and administer it's 40 CFR Part 70 Operating Permit Program for Title V sources on the Reservation. The Ignacio Area Corridor Access Plan (IACAP). Witness and Testimonial presentation at Congressional Legislative Hearing H.R. 3061 to the Subcommittee on Water and Power regarding the Pine River Indian Irrigation Project.

I was privileged to work with several tribal legislative code revisions and several fiscal year annual tribal budgets. Additionally, I served on several Council appointed committees and was present for the Tri-Ute by-laws approval. It's actually incredible the work our Tribal Council does and they are only limited by the amount of time they can focus and dedicate to all the duties and responsibilities necessary to get the job done.

My work ethic will be to focus all my attentions to our Tribe and important matters the membership require here in the home land. To be ethical and honorable in my daily life reflecting the good nature of our tribe and our culture.

My platform is to stay the course of the Financial Plan and weather-out the effects of the 2008 recession and negative impact caused by the drastic drop in the global oil markets. Keep fast and on-course of the demanding effort to update Tribal Codes and Ordinances governing a Tribal Nation of our stature; and importantly, focusing the resources of the General Fund to the services the organization directly provides to the membership; and with great effort, to foster avenues in which these services could be applicable to the members off the reservation.

Personally, I would lobby for greater interaction with the people by utilizing the Tribal-web/ Tribal Member only access to report meetings, votes, and Council Member performance to the people, while providing a vehicle to gather input from the membership.

The Tribal Council as a whole deserves respect as elected officials and I would do so. Working together with consideration of all the constituents represented through each individual Council Member, therefore exercising the inherent sovereignty granted by the Constitution, to sustain the Tribe's resources, traditions, language and culture, and improve quality of life for the membership today and tomorrow.

Additionally, with what was outlined above regarding the Tribal Council, I would promote a healthy relationship, communication, and dialogue with the Chairman and his appointed Executive Officer(s). Understanding how to navigate memberships concerns or needs through the avenues necessary to accomplish the task. It's easy to say how things should be, but to accomplish the goal requires rolling up your sleeves and understanding the road map to accomplish real action.

I have worked on the front lines of the tribal administration, out in the field, where the work is provided and personally see where the confusion or message gets lost before it makes it to the leaders. Only when the entities of the tribe operate like a well-tuned engine will the performance make the course to providing these services.

My beloved relatives, please attend the Meet the Candidate night on October 28th, 2016 and participate in the Tribal Council Election on November 4, 2016. By exercising your vote, your able to elect the candidate you feel is most viable to represent your voice with-in the Council Chambers. I humbly offer myself to relay your voice, fulfill the mission of the Tribal Council and work with the mindset, integrity, and diligence of our ancestors. Vote Matthew James Box.

Respectfully, Matthew James Box

Byron Frost

Mique Nuche, Following the path of the elders, I would like to introduce myself and family.

My name is Byron Frost, and my wife is Etta Frost, I have 2 sons (Brian and Aaron) and a daughter (Deanna), my Father is the late Jack White Frost, and my mother is the late Annetta Burch Frost. I have 5 sisters and 3 brothers.

My career as a Civil Engineer had begun after I completed my education in Civil Engineering in the state of Washington. I worked for the Department of Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs for 15 years in the states of Washington and Idaho. I have worked for the Southern Ute Indian Tribe as a Lands Division Head for 10 years. I have also work for the State of Colorado and City of Durango as a Civil Engineer Technician. Today I have my own business as a promoter.

I have gained considerable knowledge and experience in these government entities and I have dealt with issues that affect Native American communities including Southern Ute tribal issues.

My platform will consist of the past and ongoing issues that affect us today.

How will the Council handle "Breach of Trust Case" settlement money? Here is how I would distribute the money. As a Council member I would vote to give the Tribal Membership 100% of the settlement monies. This will help the tribal members whose children don't meet the Southern Ute Tribal blood quantum. I feel we need to give the responsibility back to the membership to make good choices with the money given them

Housing has always been an issue and every former council members platform was to promise to build houses, today I don't see any changes. There was a start to repair existing houses and houses that were condemned were never demolished. Today these houses sit there with no one occupying them. My plan is to address this issue and get funding to demolish these houses, and also follow up on securing tribal land for future housing.

Water issues have also been a concern. Today we pay the tribal administration for Operation and Maintenance (O&M) for the ditches that carry the water to our tribal land assignments. The tribe pays the O&M to the Bureau Of Indian Affairs Irrigation upfront and than charges the tribal land assignment holders to pay the tribe back. If elected I would fight to eliminate paying back the tribe for O&M charges. If the tribe can approve to donate 3,000 to 6,000 acre feet of water for Municipal and Industrial (M&I) purposes to Archuleta and La Plata water districts for future use, then it seems to me we shouldn't have to pay our O&M charges, this should be eliminated.

Education has always been a priority. Past leaders back in the 1970's have always said, "to compete with white America than we must educate our tribal members." Today we have succeeded in educating our tribal members to the extent that they have obtain degrees in the field of their choice. The problem, I see is once they have finished their education they have to come home because of lack of funds. My plan would be fund the students up to 3 months until they can find suitable employment. I also would fight to eliminate the so-called apprenticeship program. This holds back the tribal member from obtaining a secure job. I have seen non-tribal members secure jobs and learned the process without going through an apprenticeship program.

Employment for tribal members is scarce. We have so many educated tribal members and single parents that apply for jobs and are constantly turned down. Why are they not able to secure jobs? Because our own tribal government discriminates against tribal families. TERO is no help because they control the EEO compliance. My plan is to review the hiring practices and in some cases, change the job description to where the Director or Division Heads are hired on contract basis. This will eliminate the shortfall of tribal membership hiring because of discrimination.

Changing the lock down procedure for the Leonard C. Burch building has to be reviewed. With the changing behaviors of people today, I understand that we need to take threats seriously. If elected I would vote to remove the lock down procedure and hire security guards for each building that house employees of the tribe.

I believe we need to reassess the Growth Fund Business Plan, before approving any new business ventures. We are still in recession and now is not the time to be purchasing new ventures. We need to hold the growth fund to the 15% profit that is part of the business plan. My plan is to put a moratorium on new business ventures until we regain financial stability; this also includes bonuses for Growth Employees.

There are more issues that I haven't touched upon, and mind you these issues have been around for years and never been corrected by former council members.

Here is why I should be elected: I have a tremendous experience and knowledge of the Tribal, Federal, State and County Governments policies and procedures and how they effect our tribal government. Because of my Civil Engineering background I have been able to write a business plan for the Sun Ute Community Center. I have revised the Southern Land Code, I also developed a document for purchasing land for the Land Consolidation Program. I have

OUR PEOPLE, OUR FUTURE, OUR TIME

Our People:

We need a Tribal Council that will put our people first and make our people a priority. I am willing to work with all tribal members to address and solve concerns. This includes our youth, our adults and our elders.

Our current administration is not utilizing our youth. They live in a "connected world" and we can use their knowledge to help shape our future. I have several ideas that incorporate our young tribal members starting from pre-school through 12th grade in to what they can do for our people regardless of which career path they wish to pursue. We need to develop tomorrow's leaders today.

Our adult tribal members have a lot to offer our people. Ages 18-54 need to be encouraged to take part not only in our business ventures but need to be able to express their concerns and offer ideas to Tribal Council as well as our businesses/ventures without fear of reprisal. This benefits us in the long run. This untapped resource is vital to the survival of our people.

Our elders have a lot of information gained through life experiences that can help us right now. They have seen how the government has worked for and against our people. By asking for their assistance and knowledge we can work effectively to solve our peoples' issues. I wish to solicit any and all ideas from our people that can help us make informed and culturally relevant decisions.

Our Future:

Our future is now. We cannot afford to stand still. Our people have plenty of knowledge and passion about the direction our government is going. If I am elected, we can work toward a common goal, differences aside, to do what is best for our people.

The foundation for Tribal Member employment has already been established. If the current administration can carve out specific instances where we want our people to work then this can also be done across the board for both the Tribal Government and Growth Fund positions that are on our reservation. If you've been told that it is not possible then you must question why your elected representatives do not want to employ our people.

Our language and our traditions define who we are. We can all work together to preserve our traditional knowledge. We built a museum as a monument to our past, present and future. If we can spend that amount of money to ingratiate ourselves then why can't we spend money to preserve our language and culture for our future?

Several tribes have already used technology as well as traditional methods to teach their people. We can do the same by making language and culture a priority. Will this be completed in six months, probably not, but we can lay the foundation so that future administrations can work toward fulfilling this goal in the immediate future.

Some of our people have discussed communication as an important issue. This can be easily dealt with by building kiosks around our tribal campus where members can log on and gather relevant information they choose to research. We can also use these forms of media to help our off-reservation members such as but not limited to digitizing forms across our departments so members can fill out forms electronically. We need to utilize all means necessary to make sure our people on or off the reservation have an opportunity for their voice to be heard.

We can stream general meetings online and allow for our people to discuss their issues/concerns with Tribal Council. There has to be accountability to our people and I believe we need to report to our members how Tribal Council votes, their decision-making process as well as why they need to attend conferences/meetings off the reservation.

Another issue is descendants. We cannot plan for our future as a tribe if we do not know how many descendants we have. We need to make sure we have the ability to offer services to accommodate their needs in the future. We will have to make that decision in the future so it is best to plan for it today.

I have given examples of some things we can accomplish together. There are many more issues which we can discuss and work together to solve like rewriting our Constitution and protecting our Tribal Member employees so they can discuss what is wrong with their departments without having to worry about losing their job as well as teaching our people how to write a referendum or recall in case the current or future administrations are unwilling to do what is in our best interests. The important thing is to plan for our future together.

Our Time:

We can accomplish a lot together in one three year term. We can prioritize what is important to us and solve the issues at hand as well as prepare for our future. We can make our government and services fair for all of our people. There shouldn't be a different set of rules when it comes to family members. This will require a lot of work by all of us and the ability to set aside personal differences.

I believe in our people and I know that when challenges arise our people will be successful. No man is an island and there is no "I" in team. We will work together and walk side by side with our people and learn from each other. I look forward to gaining your respect as a Tribal Councilman, not through my words, but through my actions.

Respectfully,
Kevin R. Frost

Estelle Monte

I am Estelle Monte and I am running for Tribal Council.

My father was the late Lawrence Monte, my mother is Martha Monte, I have three daughters, Trennie Collins, Augusta Burch and Jerrika Rarick, my granddaughter, Shannon Howell and grandson Mr.

Lakota TwoCrow.

I know that the only way to make a difference is the willingness to work with the "people", Tribal Leaders, Elders, Youth and the public in general.

I know that I have a lot to learn and I am open and willing to do so.

I feel that it will take more than an educated person to be a positive movement for change.

It takes understanding, compassion and caring to be an honest and fair advocate for the tribal membership. I am asking for your vote on November 4, 2016 to be given a chance to be THAT CHANGE.

Thank you,

Howard D. Richards Sr.

Greetings,

My name is Howard D. Richards Sr., I'm a candidate for Tribal Council member in the upcoming election.

My biggest fear is that this present Tribal Council is not protecting the tribe's finances. There seems that there's no oversight at the Growth Fund which has lost money. I feel that there needs to be an evaluation of the Growth Fund; starting with the question as to why the fund was created. Are we now meeting this objective as I have not heard of any downsizing of the funds employees as you are all aware that our revenues have been in the decline.

My second concern is our Natural Resources on the ground is in such despair, one only has to travel to our reservation to see this happening. IE; Roads, fences, stock pond. More funds have to be allocated to this endeavor. I'm a true believer that an endowment fund can and should be made for Reservation Lands in the name of Natural Resource Protection.

Third concern is the permanent fund; I believe that there's too much fat in this year's budget. We also need to start a reduction in force without impacting the services that our tribal members receive and that it doesn't impact our Tribal member employment. A complete review of our Permanent fund is and should happen. There is too much duplication of service and the inability for those service providers to work together.

Finally, let's complete our Youth Service Building that is to house our Boys and Girls club and other programs that would move into this building. There is resistance from tribal departments on this cause; monies have already been allotted for this. The longer council wait to construct this building, the cost to build is going to rise.

I'm asking for your vote and support in this upcoming General Election on Nov. 4th, 2016, for the above reasons and the following:

- Proven Leadership
- Former Councilmember, Vice-Chairman and Chairman
- Assisted in the Development of the Financial Plan and Health Benefits Plan
- Knowledge of Tribal Laws and Tribal Code
- Have worked with present Tribal Administration
- Will work to meet the needs of the Tribal Membership.
- Honorably Discharged Veteran

Respectfully submitted,
Howard D. Richards Sr.

CANDIDATE STATEMENTS

Shane Seibel

Good day Tribal-Members, Families and Community members,

My name is Shane Seibel and I am running for a seat on the Southern Ute Tribal Council.

I am committed to paying it forward to the Southern Ute Indian Tribal membership.

The reasons listed below are of relevance as to why I believe I will be a positive and credible asset to the leadership team of the Southern Ute Tribe.

1. I believe in financial transparency and financial literacy.
 - a. I have the earned experience and knowledge needed to understand today's financial environment and most importantly provide valid sense to the decisions that need to be made in benefit of the Tribe.

2. I am a voice for opportunity and I believe and practice self-accountability as well as speaking and acting with integrity.
 - a. Opportunities are limitless. Tribal members wanting employment within the tribal organization will be acknowledged.
 - b. Self-accountability is the key to personal, tribal, and community growth.
3. I am qualified, educated, fair, trustworthy, and committed.
 - a. I have Growth Fund business management experience having accumulated 20+ years. I am currently a Business owner/operator.
 - b. I have earned an Associates of General Studies from the University of Phoenix and Bachelors in Business Management from Fort Lewis College.
 - c. I believe in treating other's the way you want to be treated (fair, trusted and committed).
4. I have a plan for discussion on the topic of our Southern Ute 1st Generation Descendants.

- a. I believe that the time is now to invest into our 1st generation descendants by paying it forward through health care, higher education, and TERO preference.
- b. Seven Generation thinking and implementation.
5. I am like many; transforming.
6. I personally encourage and endorse healthy eating, growing your own food, the discussion and implementation of housing solutions and cultural participation.
7. I am committed to honoring our Creator, our Southern Ute Nation, as we are Ute proud and Ute Strong.
 - a. We are, ultimately, One Nation.

As a humble Tribal Council Candidate, I feel the time is now that our Tribe elects members that are experienced, educated, fair, and qualified.

I humbly ask for your vote on November 4, 2016.

Thank you
Shane Seibel

Tara Vigil

Greetings my fellow Southern Ute Tribal Members:

My name is Tara Vigil and I am seeking a position on the Tribal Council.

My mother is, Southern Ute Tribal elder, Darlene Frost and my father is Pete Vigil who is Navajo & Hispanic. I am also proud to say he is a Vietnam Veteran. I have four children and 3 grandchildren.

I strongly believe that I can be a voice for our people. I appreciate all that has been given to us and fought for by our past Leaders.

I see the Tribe going backwards and not forward with all that we have been given. All the resources we have need to be protected for our future, time stands still for nobody and we have to move with it.

If we cannot be successful within our own reservation we will fail with bad decision making when it comes to investing off the reservation, some of this we have already witnessed.

I have experience in working with employees and Directors from three entities, Southern Ute Growth Fund, Permanent Fund and the Sky Ute Casino as well as with tribal members of all ages.

I believe in being interactive to make things happen and I believe there is always a way to make things work.

Communication is key to moving forward and if elected I will communicate to the people and if I don't have the answers I will be one to get them. I do not believe in telling anybody that "my hands are tied" I believe in always putting the people first.

We all deserve support and answers, although that may sound easier said than done and I cannot promise you the world but I can promise that I will not be afraid to ask questions and help our Tribe start moving forward before we lose what we have.

There's so many issues at hand, just to name a few: Better job security, not just for our people but for spouses who help support a Tribal Member home, as well as moving our people up the ladder not down.

We need to offer high risk insurance for those who have issues with their driving record, and that needs to be done for all not just the few.

We need better education ideas for our kids who are failing with the system as well as find out why the system is failing our kids.

I believe all tribal members would want their kids to start with the tribal school but there are no updates to see how far it's come and or how much further it can go.

We need to help our Judicial system be more successful in keeping our youth and tribal members OUT of the system.

We need to start making our language & culture fun for everybody to want to learn and be a part of and the tribe needs to quit buying and selling it because when it comes down to it, it is a CHOICE to those who want to learn it, there are ways that can happen by not giving thousands of dollars to anyone.

The Financial Plan needs to be revamped to make it work for the membership because we have come so far beyond Oil and Gas.

There's too much red tape for our Elders and people who need the Tribes help.

The tribe needs to change policies because some of these policies make it so hard to even ask for assistance, and lastly what about those who live off the reservation, what do they have to benefit from the Tribe?

You don't have to live on the reservation to claim your status as a Southern Ute we should benefit as a whole.

The tribe allows investment off the reservation so I would like to help assist those who don't live here.

There is too much decision making left in control of the Executive Office, it's too much for one person to have that much control.

The Constitution says the TRIBAL COUNCIL are the decision makers, all of this micro managing needs to stop and the only way to start changing these things around here is to start LISTENING to the people; COMMUNICATING with the organizations and to be ACTIVE with the membership.

I would love to have the opportunity to do that. Being a true leader is being honest and loyal to the membership, the employees and those who help make decisions.

In closing I would like to encourage all the tribal members who aren't registered to vote to please register.

It's important to start putting people into Tribal Council who will voice and fight for what we have, this is your future, your children's future and your grand-children's future.

I ask for your support in electing me to take a seat on the Tribal Council.

I would also like to say to the rest of the candidates, good luck and please if you are elected be a voice, asks questions and don't hide behind the scenes, be interactive and work hard for the people as a whole.

Schwartz visits Growth Fund

Damon Toledo/SU Drum

Democratic congressional nominee Gail Schwartz visited the Southern Ute Growth Fund on Monday, Oct. 17 with tribal councilman Tyson Thompson and operating director Pat Vaughn. Her tour of the Growth Fund was to gain knowledge on how operations and procedures are conducted, as well as an overview of energy and economic development across the Southern Ute Indian Reservation. Schwartz is running against Republican incumbent Rep. Scott Tipton to represent Colorado's 3rd Congressional District. Schwartz stated that her initiatives involve lifetime work preserving and protecting Colorado's land, water, and natural resources with the intent of building strong rural communities and economics. She is a former state senator from Crested Butte and highlighted her experience in business, housing, education and public services. While in the state Senate, she held leadership positions on committees concerned with agriculture, natural resources, energy, water, labor and technology. Operations director Pat Vaughn talks with Gail Schwartz about the Southern Ute Growth Fund's operations and procedures.

♏ SCORPIO (Oct. 24 – Nov. 22)
CHEERFUL BIRTHDAY WISHES SCORPIO! Many SCORPIO individuals like to have a clear, concise idea about bringing change to their lives. You would much rather keep things the way they are. But this month the planetary picture is transformed. On the 4th a lively VENUS/URANUS connection might have you enjoying a new venture. Community activities might be a continuing process because your ruling planet (Pluto) holds command over your daily affairs. Be considerate to your neighbors, and your siblings.

♐ SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 – Dec. 21)
While you're waiting for the SUN'S bright and shining return to your sign you might want to set your sights on more enlightened thoughts, and actions. Delay important decisions until later in the month. The NEW MOON in SAGITTARIUS on the 29th is certain to be a confidence booster. If you need extra incentive to get things done, action-laden MARS enters AQUARIUS on the 19th and adds enthusiasm to your daily routine. After the 14th, perseverance on the job pays off.

♑ CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 – Jan. 20)
Make it a point to circle the 12th on your calendar. That's the day bright and sociable VENUS slips into your sign, and stays for the whole month. Turn your inner party animal loose, and go out and be social. It's not the month to become a hermit. When the SUN lights up this area of your chart, hopes and wishes can be made. Plans for the future can be more expansive, and more satisfactory. Remember you still have PLUTO in your sign and it can be a real asset in achieving your goals.

♒ AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 – Feb. 18)
It's quite likely that after the 9th when mighty MARS enters your sign you'll be feeling its planetary force. High powered energy, and motivation are the driving forces. The MOON will be at its closest point to earth stimulating domestic and family matters. Be sure to complete your responsibilities before taking on new ones. Unexpected excitement might add sparkle to your day on the 5th when VENUS trines URANUS. Go ahead AQUARIUS, shimmer, shine, glitter, and glow!

♓ PISCES (Feb. 19 – March 20)
Get this Little Fishes ... on the 14th the FULL MOON in TAURUS is called a SUPER MOON! Its basic function is to call your attention to everyday matters that you might have been neglecting. Do what you can to catch up with paperwork, messages, or other pending chores. There's a revitalization taking place this month that may send fresh options your way on the 4th. Other favorable days include the 22nd, and 26th. Flexibility is essential, and a willing attitude is an asset.

♈ ARIES (March 21 – April 20)
The accent is on finances. Both yours, and resources you share with a partner or spouse. Take the lead ARIES, there may be others who will benefit from your wisdom, and experience. The FULL MOON on the 14th in practical, earthy, TAURUS could inspire more economical money methods. Keep your loved informed regarding your intentions. JUPITER in your opposite sign of LIBRA, and in your partnership zone, promotes wise and considerate decisions. Maintain the harmony through the holiday Rams.

♉ TAURUS (April 21 – May 20)
This is a big month for you TAURUS! NOVEMBER'S planetary pattern may send your ambition soaring, and add intensity to your close relationships. A congenial and agreeable attitude will serve you well. VENUS glides gracefully into the sign of CAPRICORN on the 11th, and immediately connects the dots into a favorable cycle for the Earth signs. But the really BIG news is the SUPER MOON in your sign on the 14th! It's practically guaranteed to push personal feelings to an outer level. Stay calm.

♊ GEMINI (May 21 – June 21)
This month perseverance pays off. Don't settle for less than you deserve GEMINI.. SATURN'S ongoing trek through your opposite sign of SAGITTARIUS may be testing your close relationships. On one hand it can stabilize a partnership, or end one. The decision rests with you. It all boils down to what your expectations are, and if they are being met. At month's end (29th) the NEW MOON signals a renewal of commitments, and a fresh cycle. VENUS and PLUTO encourage increased finances, use it responsibly.

♋ CANCER (June 22 – July 22)
Once again your favorite holiday arrives on the 24th, and there's every good reason to believe that most MOON KIDS will be gathering loved ones together to celebrate THANKSGIVING. In fact with the SUN and MERCURY in a creative mode, plans made before 12th will be both entertaining, and sociable. VENUS enters your opposite sign of CAPRICORN and favorably influences partnerships, and other close alliances. A bountiful table of Turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, and Pumpkin Pie await you. Yummmmm

♌ LEO (July 23 – Aug. 22)
Listen up LIONS ... early NOVEMBER is not always your best time of year. Not to worry LEO people a promising link between MERCURY, AND PLUTO might promote a resolution to old family issues. Incentive from MARS in your opposite sign of AQUARIUS encourages cooperation with partners. Until MERCURY shifts into SAGITTARIUS on the 12th, and the SUN rolls into the same sign on the 21st, you'll have to mind what you say to family members. Instead, concentrate on your Turkey Day menu.

♍ VIRGO (Aug. 23 – Sept. 23)
You have never been one to hold back when it comes to speaking your mind. On the 9th MARS enters AQUARIUS and may motivate you to try some fresh new approaches to work and health methods. VENUS in like-minded CAPRICORN, creates an effortless connection to the above. Keep the momentum going on the 22nd. NEPTUNE'S ever constant influence might try to confuse communications with partners. Your best days to communicate are the 1st and the 19th.

♎ LIBRA (Sept. 24 – Oct. 23)
On the bright side ... MARS entering AQUARIUS on the 8th sets up a more social party mood. It triggers the entertainment section of your NOVEMBER HOROSCOPE. Blending well with JUPITER'S transit through your sign. Your only concern is overdoing things in a huge way. This is the start of the holiday season. The SUN, AND MERCURY are currently in a money section, and they are putting the emphasis on income and spending. The planets are positive this month, and become more so after the 21st.

EXPRESS YOUR OPINIONS

SISSETON LAWSUIT

Tribal Council has a tough decision to make regarding to the Settlement monies from the Sisseton Lawsuit. At the meeting this past Friday it was good to see a lot of tribal members present, but it still represented a small percent of the enrolled Tribal Membership. Many ideas were brought forward from investing a portion of the monies to disbursing it all to the membership.

During the presentation Mr. Tom Shipps (attorney) provided information on why the Southern Ute Tribe joined the Lawsuit and the reasons behind the monies awarded. In a nutshell it was awarded to right some wrongs which occurred in the past. Now it doesn't take a Brain Surgeon to figure out which generation was affected the most by these wrongs. But I do feel the settlement monies should be shared with all age groups. At which percentage points for each age group I do not know.

A common theme expressed at the meeting by the membership was they were thankful for the sacrifices of those who came before us and we are now enjoying the benefits put into place. Now I ask why can't we do the same for the next generation. It doesn't have to be a big portion of the settlement. As part of Ute Culture when one receives something wonderful, you give or sacrifice a part of it so your good fortune may continue – just like the previous generations did for us.

I understand the current level of distrust with the Growth Fund, and the hesitancy to invest the funds into money making ventures due to recent financial losses. But there are other avenues to consider which will benefit the future generations. Such as a new Health Clinic Facility which would house all health components, as one tribal member mentioned at the Planning meeting "A one stop shop for health service needs". Another tribal member mentioned we need to stop investing in buildings elsewhere and start investing in our own tribal community.

I support with Councilman Baker's comment – "when making a decision, Tribal Council will be taking into consideration everyone's comments and strike a balance". As leaders, it is their charge to not only look out for the current membership but to also plan for the future of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe.

Respectfully,
Lark M. GoodTracks

OPEN ENROLLMENT FOR VETERAN'S BENEFITS

Dear Southern Ute Veteran, Your Southern Ute Veterans Association is sponsoring an Open Enrollment session in conjunction with your local Veterans Service Officer and the Southern Ute Health Fair.

This Open Enrollment session is to encourage all Native American Veterans to enroll through the Veterans Affairs Office to receive your Veteran Benefits that you earned. You served your country in the Armed Forces and are entitled to several benefits.

Your enrollment is important to our tribe's financial situation. With your enrollment, our tribe will save health care costs that are covered by the Veterans Administration (VA). Our tribe will not have to pay for health care costs covered by the VA; this will improve our tribal budgetary expenses for all members.

Mr. Richard Schleiter; the La Plata County Veterans Service Officer will be in attendance to help walk you through the enrollment process. Please bring your Form DO 214 with you. If you have lost or misplaced your DO 214, Mr. Schleiter will help you recover a copy.

This opportunity will be held at the Sky Ute Casino Resort on Nov. 3, 2016 from 8 a.m. – 4 p.m.

If you are not already taking advantage of your Veteran benefits, this is a perfect time to sign-up and make use of your Medical, Educational and the other VA assistance you are entitled to.

You have earned these benefits ... Use Them!

Sincerely,
Howard Richards
Commander

QUALIFICATIONS NEEDED FOR TRIBAL COUNCIL

I attended the Tribal General Meeting on July 28, 2016 and at that meeting, the Growth Fund gave an update on the Tribe's investments. During a question & answer period, one Tribal elder asked about the millions of dollars and the length of time Tribal monies were lost on AKA Energy. Apparently, Tribal Council has no expectations when it comes to our investments, profit & loss margins, duration of "poor performing/losing" investments. AND, they must not think that we Tribal members are interested in, smart enough or concerned about our financial losses.

Interestingly enough, none of this kind of information was on the agenda. Tribal members don't know how long this investment was "going under" OR the full amount of our losses.

Tribal Council is mostly young, naive and truthfully ... uneducated. Elder Council members should have known better. It's always been said that the "Growth Fund makes all the decisions" because Tribal Council members do NOT understand business. Funny, it used to be said that "the Tribal Attorneys ran the Tribe"!

Isn't it about time that the qualifications to be on the Tribal Council got revised?

It's always been little more than a "popularity contest" to win a seat on the Council! Think about it. We're electing people who will be making the most important decisions on behalf of 1500 Tribal members, their reservation and their resources! These Tribal leaders need to know how to manage our business affairs.

Otherwise, we'll lose what we have, including the bright futures of our young Tribal members.

You HAVE to vote on election-day and I strongly encourage you to vote for the best educated candidate, not just your party friend or relative.

THINK ABOUT THE FUTURE OF THE TRIBE!

Roderick Grove,
Tribal Elder
and Veteran

FLY-FISHING

Leaders, not bobble heads

By Don Oliver
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

I suggest you practice tying your favorite knots at home so you don't become frustrated.

While fishing the other day I mentioned to my friend and fishing partner, Sam, I was going to write a column about leaders. He instantly became agitated, and wanted to know how a newspaper could pay me for handing in a blank piece of paper. Sam went on to say since we don't have any leaders, at any level, how could I write about them. I told him I was referring to symmetrical tapered lines made of monofilament, not the elected bobble-head leaders. He smiled, tied a piece of tippet onto his leader, and continued to fish.

What prompted me to think about leaders and tippets was an article I read by Mark Halperin in American Angler, about leaders. It got me to thinking about just how important is a leader, and just what does it do? The answer to the first question is very, the answer to the second question is, it helps us to catch fish. So, how does this very important part of fly-fishing equipment help me to catch fish? Leader separates the fly from the fly line. Once a leader is attached to a fly line, it is easy; tie on a fly, cast it out, and catch fish – if it were only that simple.

Leaders come in a variety of materials, lengths, strengths, tapered and non-tapered. With all these variables you now have an endless number of options to choose from in selecting the proper leader. Choosing the correct leader is similar to choosing the proper after-dinner cigar and single malt. Pick what works best for you, with a few guidelines.

For fishing in this area I prefer a fly-shop-bought, tapered, nine-foot, 4X leader. I find this to be the most versatile, and easy-to-use leader. If I was really into fly-fishing, I could build my own leaders. However, I don't like all the knots and time it takes to build leaders. By using a nine-foot 4X leader I am able to customize it, as needed, on the river. By customize I mean I can shorten it if needed, or lengthen the leader by adding tippet as needed.

Tippet is nothing more than non-tapered monofilament. It and leader come in sizes from 0X to 8X. Tippet is on all the spools you see attached to vests of fly fishermen. Since tippet comes in different sizes I can now customize my leader while on the water so it is easier to cast flies of different sizes. Big flies need strong leaders and tippets, while little bitty flies need something small enough to fit through the eye of the fly.

The higher the X number on the tippet spool indicates a smaller circumference in the line, and thus an end product that has less strength. The same X number is true for a leader without a tippet tied to it. A correctly matched leader and tippet makes it easier to cast your fly. Not only will casting a fly properly matched to your leader and tippet take less effort, it will also be easier to mend and get that picture-perfect drift.

So, if you're on the water and need to tie on a length of tippet, what's the best knot to use? There are many books on knots, and how to tie them. I use two knots, the surgeons knot with three wraps, and the blood knot. My preferred knot is the surgeons. It is easy to tie, and I have a lot of confidence in it. In fact, I have never had that knot break. If I need to splice in tippet because a defective leader has produced a wind knot, I'll cut the wind knot out and use a blood knot for the splice. I suggest you practice tying your favorite knots at home so you don't become frustrated trying to tie a knot in windy conditions.

I enjoy trying different tapered leaders and tippets because it gives me something, besides lack of talent, to blame my non-catching on.

Sister tribe shares bounty

Robert L. Ortiz/SU Drum

Marci Wing, Simon Light and his crew from the Ute Mountain Ute Public Works Department loaded two flatbed trailers and two trucks full of pumpkins early Tuesday morning and delivered them to the Southern Ute Reservation on Tuesday, Oct. 18. "It took us three hours to harvest and load the pumpkins," Light said. "We want to share with our sister tribe for all that they do for us." Ute Mountain Ute Public Works employees (above) are at the ready to help load pumpkins.

A trip to the pumpkin patch

Damon Toledo/SU Drum

Southern Ute tribal member families were treated to a free ride on the Narrow Gauge Durango-Silverton train's "Charlie Brown Pumpkin Patch Train Ride" on Saturday, Oct. 22. The train departed from Durango early in the afternoon and stopped just north of Durango where a variety of food booths, activities, and entertainment were provided. Approximately 30 tribal members participated on the trip. Natelle Thompson helps her daughter Seraya Ruybal pick out the right pumpkin.
