

PART 2. NEW SOURCE PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

3-101. Introduction to Incorporation of Standards of Performance for New Stationary Sources.

This Part incorporates as part of the Reservation Air Program certain standards of performance established by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to section 111 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. § 7411) to regulate criteria pollutant emissions from specific categories of new sources. The purpose of the incorporation is to enable the Southern Ute Indian Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe/State of Colorado Environmental Commission to exercise authority with respect to the incorporated regulations. The complete text of the incorporated EPA regulations is found in 40 C.F.R. Part 60, as revised and published as of October 15, 2012. Copies of the incorporated regulations can be obtained from the Southern Ute Indian Tribe, Air Quality Program, P.O. Box 737 MS#84, Ignacio, Colorado 81137.

3-102. Incorporation of NSPS by reference.

The following EPA regulations on Standards of Performance for New Stationary Sources and designated appendices, revised and published as of October 15, 2012, not including any later amendments, are adopted by the Commission and incorporated by reference into this Reservation Air Code for tribal-permitted sources only. All new sources of air pollution shall comply with the standards, criteria, and requirements set forth in the incorporated regulations and appendices. For the purpose of this Part, the term “new sources” means any stationary source, the construction or modification of which is commenced after the publication of regulations (or, if earlier, proposed regulations) prescribing a standard of performance under federal law which will be applicable to such source. For the purpose of this Part, the word “Administrator” as used in the incorporated regulations means the Tribe, except for those aspects of the incorporated regulations which cannot be delegated to the Tribe, in which case, “Administrator” means both the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency or his authorized representative and the Tribe.
