

Positive Indian Parenting (PIP) has been used for over 35 years and remains popular today because the teachings are timeless. Historically, we had rich teachings that helped children grow up safe with strong families. Colonization threatened those teachings—our Native families were being separated and traditional practices were at risk of being lost. PIP was developed in the 1980s to fill this void.

Positive Indian Parenting was designed to help parents and families remember our teachings and practice them. In part one of each session we will discuss examples of traditional practices and teachings from several different tribes. Instructors also share teachings from local areas and communities. Part two of each session discusses how to apply those teachings and values today.

Honoring our Tradition by Honoring our Children

This class is free of charge and consists of 8 sessions that may last up to three hours. We ask that you commit yourself to completing each session. You will need the Microsoft Teams App and access to a video camera and speaker (smart phone or laptop computer will work) in an area free from distraction. Please call Social Services at 970-563-2332 for more information or to sign up.
