Yllana-Chanelle Howe

Greetings,

I would like to start off by thanking the Cultural Preservation Department for this opportunity to share my artwork as the theme for 101st Southern Ute Powwow and Fair.

First, I would like to introduce myself to the community, my name is Yllana-Chanelle Nana-Ci-Vuch Howe. My parents are Marquette Cloud and Walter Howe my siblings are Ollyvia Howe, Izabella Cloud, Sergio Cloud, and Isaiah Valdez. I am a local Southern Ute Tribal member and mostly grew up in Ignacio my whole life. I graduated from the Ignacio High School class of 2022. Also, In my youth I was Royalty for Southern Ute Tribe for a couple of years where I visit places, powwows, muscems and represented my tribe. On my free time I like to create, may that be drawing, crochet, or making dress/skirts. And my favorite colors are pink and orange.

What inspired me to create this design was, Frybread is one of many foods that is most served, it's at powwows and multiple ceremonies throughout Native Nation. I had an idea for this creation that was semi-different and it connected all native people in some way. Besides the controversy with Frybread, I always looked on the brighter side, the frybread we all consume and brings us native people together, no matter the location. The design on the hands is something my partner Bird Red suggested. The designs are bits and pieces of native art; pottery, paintings, beadwork, and brackets. I wanted to have the hands as the colors of the Medicine Wheel so it represents everyone that can relate to it. Not every native is brown, I wanted it to be open to everyone. So, no native feels left out. Also, the 1's besides the frybread was my sister Izabella's idea.

Thank you to Bird and Izabella and the staff of SunUte for feedback.
